I.—BUNDELKHAND.

THE Rajas of Bundelkhand long struggled to maintain their independence against the Muhammadan powers of Delhi. During the latter part of the reign of Shah Jahan, a Chief named Champat Rai asserted his independence and a new dynasty in the eastern part of the province was founded by his son Chhatarsal. The western Chiefs continued more or less subject to Delhi. The territories of Chhatarsal were estimated to produce a yearly land revenue of one crore of rupees. His only strong fortress was Kalinjar, and his principal residence the city of Panna, in the neighbourhood of which are the celebrated diamond mines of Panna.

During the government of Raja Chhatarsal, the province of Bundel-khand was invaded by Muhammad Khan Bangash, the Pathan Chief ot Farrukhabad; and the first Peshwa, Baji Rao, was invited from the Deccan for the purpose of repelling this invasion. The expulsion of the Pathan from Bundelkhand through the successful exertions of a Mahratta army was followed by Raja Chhatarsal's adoption of the Peshwa as his son, and by a distribution of his territory between his two legitimate sons, Hirde Sah and Jagat Raj, and his son by adoption, Baji Rao. By this arrangement the Peshwa became the legitimate possessor of a large portion of territory in Bundelkhand, which was the earliest territorial acquisition of the Mahratta Government in Northern India and was considerably extended by subsequent conquests. The two remaining shares of the possessions of Raja Chhatarsal continued to be held in small portions by the numerous descendants of his legitimate sons, or by the nominal adherents and rebellious servants of the declining branches of that family.

Madhuji Scindia, in his last and successful attempt to re-establish the Mahratta power and influence in Northern India, was attended by a strong reinforcement of troops from the Deccan under the command of Ali Bahadur, a grandson of Baji Rao, being the son of Shamsher Bahadur, who was the offspring of the Peshwa and a Musalman concubine. On a former expedition of Madhuji Scindia to Northern India, a number of the nobles had abandoned the Musalman faction and influence at Delhi and had attached themselves to the Mahratta leader. Among these was Raja Himmat Bahadur, the spiritual head and military commander of a large body of devotees, who had acquired some territory in Bundelkhand. Dissatisfied with his treatment by Scindia, Ali Bahadur, at the instigation of Raja Himmat Bahadur, turned his attention to the entire conquest of Bundelkhand. An agreement was concluded between Ali Bahadur and the Raja, by which a large portion of the province was, when conquered, to be consigned to the independent management of Himmat Bahadur, and its revenue to be exclusively applied to the payment of a body of troops which the Raja engaged to furnish and to maintain in the service of Ali Bahadur.

The distracted state of the province of Bundelkhand, which had long been a scene of domestic dissension and civil war between the legitimate descendants of Raja Chhatarsal, afforded at this time peculiar encouragement to the ambitious views of Ali Bahadur. Of the territory which had descended to the two legitimate sons of Raja Chhatarsal and had been divided in unequal portions between them, the larger share, which was possessed by Raja Hirde Sah, had passed from the possession of his grandson Hindupat to that of two rebellious servants of his family, named Beni Huzuri and Kaim Raj Chaube, the former of whom had established independent authority at Panna, while the latter had obtained possession of the fortress of Kalinjar with the districts surrounding it. The possessions also of Raja Jagat Raj, after a long and severe contest between his second son and his two grandsons, Guman Singh and Khuman Singh, the children of the eldest son of Jagat Raj, had been first distributed among the three; but they were afterwards entirely usurped by the two latter, whose posterity were now contending in their turn for the sole possession of the whole of the inheritance of Jagat Raj.

Ali Bahadur soon established his authority in the greater part of the province. The only serious resistance he met with was at Kalinjar, at the siege of which he died in 1802, after having concluded an arrangement with the Court of Poona by which the sovereign and paramount right of the Peshwa over all the conquests of Ali Bahadur in Bundelkhand was declared and acknowledged.

Ali Bahadur left two sons, Shamsher Bahadur and Zulfikar Ali. The former was at Poona at the time of his father's death. Raja Himmat Bahadur professed at first the intention of supporting the right of Shamsher Bahadur and of maintaining the government of his father's possessions in his name and behalf till his arrival in Bundelkhand. For this purpose he selected from the several Mahratta leaders who remained in Ali Bahadur's camp the maternal cousin of the late Nawab, by name Ghani Bahadur, who was accordingly declared Regent during the absence of Shamsher Bahadur; Raja Himmat Bahadur retaining, as before, the exclusive management of his own districts and an increased influence over the mind and councils of the Regent and of the native Chiefs of Bundelkhand.

About this period the declared hostility of the several subordinate Chiefs of the Mahratta Empire to the arrangements which were concluded by the Treaty of Bassein*, by which, among other advantages, the British Government acquired territory in Bundelkhand yielding Rs. 36,16,000 a year, occasioned a formal declaration on the part of the British Government of their intention of maintaining the provisions of that treaty; and this declaration was immediately followed by offensive operations on the part of Daulat Rao Scindia and the Raja of Berar, and by no less hostile, though more secret and cautious, measures of aggression on the part of Jaswant Rao Holkar.

In the plan of hostile operations suggested by the last named Chief, the invasion of the British territories in the Gangetic Doab, and a predatory incursion into the districts of Mirzapur and Benares by the route of Bundelkhand, would appear to have been some of the measures to which the greatest importance was attached; and Nawab Shamsher Bahadur was selected for the execution of the project.

Raja Himmat Bahadur, foreseeing in the success of this plan of the Mahratta Chiefs an immediate diminution of his own authority in Bundelkhand, determined to abandon the Mahratta interests, and to seek the permanent establishment of his own influence, with the aggrandisement of his possessions in Bundelkhand, by assisting in the transfer of the province from the Mahrattas to British rule. Accordingly, by an Agreement (No. I) concluded at Shahpur on the 4th of September 1803, it was provided, among other stipulations, that a portion of territory in Bundelkhand, yielding an annual revenue of twenty lakhs of rupees, should be ceded to the Raja for the maintenance of a body of troops under his command in the service of the British Government; and, in consideration of the great advantages which were expected from the junction of the power and influence of Himmat Bahadur, and from his zealous co-operation with the British force in their occupation of Bundelkhand and in the establishment of the British authority in that province, a permanent jagir in the British dominions was also promised to the Raja, the extent of it to be proportioned to the benefits which might afterwards appear to have been derived from his adherence to the terms of his engagement. immediate advantage which accrued to the British Government from this arrangement was the assistance afforded to a detachment of their troops in crossing the Jumna into Bundelkhand, which might otherwise have been vigorously opposed by the united force of the Mahrattas and of Himmat Bahadur; and to the latter Chieftain the acquisition of a rich and fertile territory, of more than double the extent of that which he had possessed under the former government, without any considerable increase of his former military establishment. The districts which were specifically assigned to Raja Himmat Bahadur comprised, with a few trifling exceptions, the whole of the territory contiguous to the west bank of the Jumna from Allahabad to Kalpi.

On the death of Raja Himmat Bahadur in 1804 these lands were resumed, and jagirs and pensions were assigned to his family.

During the negotiations between the British Government and Raja Himmat Bahadur. Nawah Shamsher Bahadur had arrived in Bundelkhand. But his efforts to establish his authority against the British Government were unsuccessful, and he was content in 1804 to accept a provision (No. II) of four lakhs of runecs a year, with permission to reside at Banda. This provision was subsequently gnaranteed (No. III) to him in 1812. Shamsher Bahadur died in 1823, and was succeeded by his brother Zulfikar Ali. To him succeeded Ali Bahadur, who joined in the mutiny of 1857, and was therefore deprived of his pension of four lakhs a year. He was removed to Indore, where he was placed under surveillance and allowed for his support a pension of Rs. 36,000 a year for life. He died in 1873, when stipends amounting to one-third of the lapsed pension, or Rs. 12,000 a year, were assigned to his family.

Of the territory ceded by the Peshwa, the British Government retained in their own possession lands on the banks of the Jumna vielding about fourteen lakhs, exclusive of the territory granted to Raja Himmat Bahadur. The Chiefs who held the remaining portion were maintained in their territorial rights, with a view to secure a barrier against the inroads which were then meditated by Holkar. As the authority of the Peshwa in Bundelkhand was little more than nominal, it became necessary for the pacification of the country to enter into engagements with the Chiefs holding lands in the Peshwa's share of the province, securing to them the rights they enjoyed under Ali Bahadur's government on condition of allegiance and fidelity. The Chiefs in the western portion of Bundel-khand were treated as independent, and treaties of friendship and alliance were formed with them.

All the sovereign rights of the Peshwa in Bundelkhand were finally ceded to the British Government on the extinction of the Peshwa's power in 1817.

Four of the Bundelkhand States, Jalaun, Jhansi, Jaitpur and Khadi, lapsed to the British Government; and six, Chirgaon, Purwa, Tiroha, Bijairaghogarh, Shahgarh and Banpur, were confiscated, the four last named on account of the rebellion of their Chiefs in 1857. The Chief of Banpur was the representative of the oldest Bundela line, which lost Chanderi, Lalitpur, Kurwai, and other districts to the Mahrattas.

There are twenty-two States in Bundelkhand of more or less importance. Until 1888 Khaniadhana was included in this Agency; but in that year its political supervision was transferred to the Resident at Gwalior (sec Gwalior). In 1896 the State of Baraundha or Pathar Kachhar, the Estate of Jaso, and the five so-called Kalinjar Chaube Jagirs (Paldeo, Taraon, Bhaisaunda, Pahra and Kamta Rajaula) were transferred to the charge of the Political Agent, Baghelkhand. The only States which have formal treaties with the British Government are Orchha (formerly known also as Tehri), Datia and Samthar. The other Chiefs hold their territories under Sanads, and are bound by Ikrarnamas or deeds of fealty and obedience.

All transit duties have been abolished at different times in late years throughout Bundelkhand. There are no extradition agreements with any of the States. Extradition is effected in accordance with the Extradition Act and the rules connected with it; but there are reciprocal arrangements on certain matters, e.g., extradition, surrender of Police and Military deserters, service of Summons, etc., between the States in Bundelkhand and certain other States in and outside Central India and adjoining British Districts.

The area of Bundelkhand is 10,186 square miles, with a population, according to the Census of 1921, of 1,269.783.

(I).—LAPSED STATES.

As already stated, four of the Bundelkhand States have lapsed to the British Government, namely Jalaun, Jhansi, Jaitpur and Khadi.

1. JALAUN.

The Chief who was in possession of Jalaun at the time of the British occupation of Bundelkhand was Nana Govind Rao. He joined Shamsher Bahadur in his hostility to the British Government, and his territories were therefore occupied by British troops. But on his submission his estates were restored (No. IV) to him in 1806, with the exception of Kalpi and a few villages on the banks of the Jumna. In 1817 he was released (No. V) from the tribute and military service which Government had acquired a right to demand after the Peshwa had ceded to them all his sovereign rights in Bundelkhand; and he ceded to Government the district of Kande and some villages in the pargana of Churki. Nana Govind Rao died in 1822, and was succeeded by his son Bala Rao Govind. On the death of Bala Rao Govind in 1832 without issue, his widow adopted her brother, Rao Govind Rao, on whose death in 1840 the territory lapsed to the British Government.

2. JHANSI.

The first Treaty (No. VI) with Jhansi was made with Sheo Rao Bhao in 1804. He was succeeded in 1815 by his grandson Ram Chand Rao, with whom a new Treaty (No. VII) was made in 1817, after the Peshwa had ceded his rights in Bundelkhand to the British Government. Chand Rao died childless in 1835: and, as the Treaty of 1817 was interpreted as guaranteeing the inheritance of Jhansi not to the descendants of Ram Chand Rao only but of Sheo Rao Bhao also, the succession of Raghunath Rao, uncle of Ram Chand, was recognised. He also died without legitimate issue in 1838. The right of his brother Gangadhar Rao to the succession was admitted; but, owing to his incompetence, the direct management of the State was retained by the British Government. The administration, however, was transferred to him in 1843, under conditions specified in an Agreement (No. VIII). Gangadhar Rao died childless in March 1853: and, as there was no male heir of any of the Chiefs who had ruled Jhansi since its first connection with the British, the State lapsed to the British Government.

3. JAITPUR.

The first Sanad (No. IX) of the British Government was given to Raja Kesri Singh in 1812. On his death the estate descended to his son Parichat, who was deposed for rebellion in 1842. The Estate was then conferred on Diwan Khet Singh who, as a descendant of Chhatarsal, had advanced claims to the State of Charkhari. On the death of Khet Singh in 1849 without male heirs, the Jaitpur Estate lapsed to the British Government. A descendant of the family, the widow of Diwan Jait Singh (Mussamai Rani Dulaiya, alias Raja Beti) receives a pension of Rs. 250 per mensem.

4. KHADI.

Khadi was a small Jagir granted (No. X) in 1807 to Parsuram, leader of a band of plunderers, with a view to the pacification of the province of Bundelkhand. Parsuram died in 1850. It was then ruled that the grant was merely for life, and the Jagir was accordingly resumed.

(II).—CONFISCATED STATES.

The six States or Estates which were confiscated in Bundelkhand were Chirgaon, Purwa, Tiroha or Kirur, Bijairaghogarh, Shahgarh and Banpur.

1. CHIRGAON.

This was one of the eight Hasht-Bhaiya Jagirs (q.v., infra) into which Diwan Rai Singh divided his Jagir of Baragaon. It was confiscated in 1841 on account of the rebellion of the Jagirdar Bakht Singh.

2. Purwa.

Purwa formed one of the Kalinjar Chaube shares (see Baghelkhand) and was held by Pokhar Prasad, son of Govind Das. It was confiscated in 1855 on account of the complicity of his son and successor, Bishan Prasad, in murder.

3. BIJAIRAGHOGARH.

When Maihar (see Baghelkhand) was divided in 1826 on the death of Durjan Singh (see Baghelkhand No. XVI), one share, Bijairaghogarh, fell to the lot of his second son Prag Das. The Estate was confiscated in 1858 for the rebellion of its holder Surju Prasad, son of Prag Das, and in 1865 it was included in the territories administered by the Chief Commissioner of the Central Provinces.

4. Shahgarh.

This Estate was confiscated for the rebellion of its Chief in 1857. Raja Bakht Bali, the ex-Chief, died at Bindraban in 1873.

5. Banpur.

This Estate was claimed by Scindia as forming part of the Chanderi district conquered by Gwalior in 1830. The claim was not admitted; but, after the confiscation of the Estate consequent on the rebellion of its Chief in 1857, it was made over to Scindia under the arrangements connected with the Treaty of 1860. The ex-Chief Raja Mardan Singh died at Muttra in 1879. The Government of India granted allowances for the support of his grandson Diwan Nirbhe Singh and his family. These allowances have been continued in gradually decreasing amounts. At present a pension of Rs. 200 per mensem is enjoyed by a descendant, Diwan Sawant Singh.

6. TIROHA OR KIRUR.

Amrit Rao of Tiroha was the son of the Peshwa Raghoba. On the flight of Baji Rao to Bassein, Holkar wished to treat his flight as an abdication, and to put forward Amrit Rao as his successor. The advance of the British troops on Poona, however, defeated his plans. Amrit Rao opened a friendly correspondence with the British authorities, and an Agreement (No. XI) was made in 1803, guaranteeing to him and to his son a provision of seven lakhs of rupees a year. Amrit Rao at the same time abandoned his pretensions to the Peshwaship. He selected Tiroha in Bundelkhand as his residence, where a Jagir of Rs. 4,691 was con-Amrit Rao died in 1824, and was succeeded by his son ferred on him. Vinayak Rao. On Vinayak Rao's death in 1853 without issue, the pension of seven lakhs ceased. He left two sons by adoption, Narayan Rao and Madho Rao. These joined in the rebellion in 1857, and their family estates were confiscated. Narayan Rao died a prisoner at Hazaribagh in 1860. Madho Rao was pardoned in consideration of his youth. He attained his majority in 1866, and was permitted to draw the provision of Rs. 30,000 a year which had been made for him. sum of Rs. 50,000 was advanced to him for the purchase of landed property in Bareilly, the amount being deducted from the capital sum invested; in 1877 a similar transaction was sanctioned involving a further advance of Rs. 32,000. The allowance payable to Madho Rao was thus reduced to Rs. 26,720 a year. He was originally permitted to reside at Bareilly and to purchase lands there; but about 1894 he left Bareilly and settled at Beharghat in the Bulandshahr district, and in 1901 it was decided that there was no longer any reason for requiring him to reside in a specified place.

(III).—STATES HELD UNDER TREATIES.

The only three States in Bundelkhaud with which formal treaties have been concluded by the British Government are Orchha, Datia and Samthar.

1. ORCHHA.

Orchha, which was fomerly known also as Tehri, is the oldest and highest in rank of all the Bundela States, and was the only State in Bundelkhand which was not held in subjection by the Peshwa, though the Mahrattas severed from it the territory which formed the State of Jhansi.

Rudra Pratap is said to have founded Orchha in 1501. Bir Singh Deo (1605-1626), who was the fourth in succession from him, is the most famous of the Orchha Chiefs. His son and successor Jujhar Singh (1626-1635) rebelled and was dispossessed of his Chiefship, the State remaining without a Chief from 1635 to 1641, when Shah Jahan restored it to Pahar Singh, another son of Bir Singh Deo.

Sawant Singh ruled over the State from 1752 to 1765 and received from Shah Alam, son of Alam Gir II, a royal banner and the title of "Mahendra" which is still borne by the Orchha Chief.

Raja Bikramajit Mahendra, eleventh in succession from Pahar Singh, was the ruling Chief of Orchha when the British entered Bundelkhand, and a Treaty of friendship and defensive alliance (No. XII) was concluded with him on the 23rd December 1812. This Chief formally abdicated in favour of his son Dharam Pal; but, on the death of the latter without issue, Bikramajit again assumed the government of his State. He died in 1834, and was succeeded by his brother Tej Singh, who died in 1841, having previously adopted his cousin's son, Sujan Singh. Sujan Singh's right was disputed by the Larai Rani, the widow of Dharam Pal, who claimed the right to adopt a successor to the State. The pretensions of the Larai Rani led to serious disturbances; but, as the adoption of Sujan Singh was acknowledged by the British Government and acquiesced in by the neighbouring Chiefs, Government established Sujan Singh in the succession and appointed the Rani as regent till he attained his majority. Sujan Singh died a few months after he had reached his majority. his death his widow was permitted, with the advice of the principal Bundela Chiefs, to adopt Hamir Singh, a collateral relation of the family and then a minor.

The Maharaja of Orchha formerly paid a tribute of Rs. 3,000 to Jhansi for the Jagir of Terauli. This payment passed to the British Government on the lapse of Jhansi, but was remitted as a reward for the services of the Maharaja in 1857. The istimrari revenue of the village of Mohanpur, amounting to Rs. 200, was remitted at the same time.

In 1862 the Ruler of Orchha received a Sanad of Adoption (No. XIII): and in 1867 was granted a permanent salute of 15 guns.

The Larai Rani died in 1867, shortly after Hamir Singh had been invested with the administration of his State. Hamir Singh died in March 1874. His younger brother Pratap Singh was recognised as his successor, and a British officer was temporarily deputed to supervise the administration of the State. Pratap Singh was entrusted with the government in June 1874, and the British officer was withdrawn in May 1876.

All transit duties were abolished in the Orchha State in 1880, and the fact was notified in the Gazette of India.

In 1882 Maharaja Pratap Singh was granted the hereditary title of Sawai, and in 1886 that of Saramad-i-Rajaha-i-Bundelkhand or First of the Princes of Bundelkhand.

The Maharaja's eldest son Raja Bahadur Bhagwant Singh died in 1920; and his second son, Rao Raja Sawant Singh, was adopted by the Chief of Bijawar whom, with the sanction of Government, he succeeded in 1899, after renouncing all possible future claims to the Orchha State.

In 1884 the Maharaja made over land free of cost for the Jhansi-Manikpur State Railway (now the Great Indian Peninsula). Subsequently he claimed compensation which, in the special circumstances of the case, the Government of India paid. Civil and criminal jurisdiction in the lands acquired for the railway was ceded (No. XIV) by the Maharaja in 1888.

In 1887 the name of the capital of the State was changed from "Tehri" to "Tikamgarh," and the State and the Darbar were officially styled "Orchha," thus avoiding the former confusion with the Tehri (or Garhwal) State in the United Provinces.

Prior to 1909 the village of Dadpura had escaped actual incorporation with any of the States or Jagirs in Bundelkhand or with the Jhansi District. This omission was discovered in 1908: and Orchha, Dhurwai and Tori Fatehpur each laid claim to the village. It was decided in 1911 that it was dependent on the Orchha Darbar, to whom it was accordingly transferred.

For the construction of the Dhakwan weir of the Betwa Canal the United Provinces Government in 1915 acquired from the State, on payment of compensation and under certain other conditions, the land of the Karkigarh island in the Betwa River.

In connection with the construction of the Pahari Reservoir in the Dhasan River the United Provinces Canal Department acquired in 1915 an area of approximately 298 acres of State land under an Agreement (No. XV).

In January 1920 the Maharaja acquired from Kampta Rajaula, a Jagir in Baghelkhand, a plot of land for the construction of a temple.

Maharaja Pratap Singh died on the 3rd March 1930 and was succeeded by his grandson the present Maharaja Vir Singh, born in 1898.

The area of Orchha is about 2,080 square miles; the population, by the Census of 1921, 284,948; and the revenue about ten lakks of rupees, but about one-half of this amount is alienated to relations of the Chief and others. The military forces consist (1926) of 130 Cavalry, 500 Infantry and 100 Artillery men, with 50 serviceable and 40 unserviceable guns.

2. Datia.

Datia was in origin an offshoot of Orchha, as regards both the State and the family of the Chief. Bhagwan Rao, a son of Bir Singh Deo of Orchha, received it and Beroni from his father in 1626. The territories of Datia came under the supremacy of the British Government with the other territories in Bundelkhand ceded by the Peshwa under the Treaty of Bassein (see Vol. VII, The Peshwa). The first Treaty with Datia was concluded with Raja Parichhat on the 15th March 1804 (No. XVI). After the deposition of the Peshwa in 1817, a tract of land on the east of the river Sind was added to Datia as a reward for the attachment of the Raja to the British Government, and a new Treaty, dated the 31st July 1818 (No. XVII), was made with him. Raja Parichhat died in 1839 without issue, having previously adopted a foundling, Bije Bahadur, whose succession was recognised. The succession of Bije Bahadur was opposed by Diwan Madan Singh of Beroni, a collateral branch of Parichhat's family, on the grounds of consanguinity and an old agreement that, in the event of the Datia Chief dying without male heirs, the succession would lie in the Beroni family. But, as Government had already recognised the adoption of Bije Bahadur, and as the country was fairly governed and the succession was agreeable to the people, the claims of the Beroni family were set aside. The Thakur of Beroni also endeavoured to obtain a recognition of the distinct tenure of his Jagir in independence of the Chief of Datia, but in this he did not sueeeed.

Bije Bahadur, who died in 1857, left an illegitimate son, Arjun Singh, but was succeeded by his adopted son Bhawani Singh, who was born in 1845. In consequence of disturbances caused by the advocacy of the claims of Arjun Singh, who was supported by the Rani Regent, Arjun Singh was removed from Datia. Subsequently a rebellion was raised by the Rani and her followers, who seized the fort of Seonda. The fort was reduced by a British force, the chief rebels were sentenced to imprisonment for life in the fort of Chunar, and the Rani was placed under close surveillance. The claims of the Beroni branch of the family to the succession were again brought forward and rejected in 1861. In October 1861 Captain Thompson was deputed to Datia on special duty, and was not withdrawn till the young Chief was invested with ruling powers in May 1865. Arjun Singh died at Nowgong on the 30th September 1887.

In 1862 all transit duties were abolished in Datia.

In the same year the Ruler of Datia received a Sanad of Adoption (see No. XIII).

In August 1865 the Government of India decided that in future the Chief of Datia should be called Maharaja, and in January 1877 the hereditary title of Lokendra (No. XVIII) was bestowed on him.

In 1867 the Ruler of Datia was granted a permanent salute of 15 guns.

In 1879 the Muharaja entered into an Agreement (No. XIX) regarding the manutacture, import and export of salt: and prohibiting the export of bhang, ganja, spirits, opium, or other intoxicating drug, or preparation thereof, by routes barred by the inland enstoms line. In consideration of the loss he would sustain by this agreement, it was arranged that he should receive Rs. 10,000 a year. The prohibition regarding the import of salt was tentatively withdrawn in 1884, and has not yet been re-imposed.

In 1882 a question of much importance to the State, which had been pending for many years, was decided. It related to the devolution of shares in the Beroni Jagir. The main point involved was the origin of this estate, and it was definitely ruled that the Jagir was a grant entirely independent of Datia, made from Delhi, and that the Mahuraja could not therefore claim to stand in the same relation to Beroni as he might to jagirdars hobbing under a grant from his State, though the Thakurs must be considered as politically subordinate to Datia. In 1902 the Government of India re-affirmed their decision that in matters of succession Beroni is not subject to Datia, and that succession to shares in the Beroni Estate must be according to the rules of Hindu Law; this decision, however, in no way affects the general subordination of the Beroni Thakurs to the Datia State.

In 1882 the Maharaja coded hand for the Betwa Canal, receiving payment for the area acquired. In 1888 an Agreement (No. XX) was negotiated between Government and the Darbar regarding cession of jurisdiction and other matters connected with the Canal.

In 1888 the Maharaja ceiled (No. XXI) civil and criminal jurisdiction in the lands which had been acquired in 1884 in the Datia State for the present Great Indian Peninsula Railway. A question of compensation arose, similar to that which was discussed in the case of Orchha; but the Maharaja declined to receive any payment from Government for the land he had made over for the railway.

The Darbar has adopted British currency as the sole legal tender for all transactions in the State, and reported that the work of conversion had been completed on the 9th January 1904.

Maharaja Bhawani Singh died in August 1907 and was succeeded by his son, the present Maharaja Lokendra Govind Singh Bahadur. Owing to maladministration the Maharaja was temporarily deprived of his powers in 1911, and the administration was carried on, under the Political Agent's control, by a Diwan appointed by the Government of India.

Restricted powers were given to the Maharaja in 1913, and full administrative powers were restored to him in 1916.

In 1908 the State entered into an Agreement with the United Provinces Government in respect of the closure on certain conditions of the liquor and drug shops in the State village Pandri.

The Imperial Postal Department took over the postal arrangements of the State in 1921, since when a free grant of Service Postage Stamps of the face value of Rs. 5,000 is made annually to the State.

The Maharaja of Datia pays to Scindia, through the British Government, Rs. 15,000 (Nanak Shahi currency) on account of the pargana of Nadigaon.

The area of Datia is 911 square miles; the population, by the Census of 1921, 148,659; and the revenue about Rs. 19,00,000.

Under the reorganisation scheme of January 1921 the authorised strength of the Datia State Forces consists (December 1926) of:—

With effect from the 1st January 1922 the designation "Imperial Service Troops" was changed to "Indian State Forces".

3. Samthar.

The State of Samthar was once a part of the Datia State. About 1735 Raja Indrajit Singh of Datia granted titular honours to Naune Shah's son Madan Singh Gujar, who was at the same time made Kilahdar of the Samthar Fort. Later, a Jagir of five villages was granted to Madan Singh's son Devi Singh, and from this Jagir the present State of Samthar developed. When the British entered the province, Raja Ranjit Singh, son of Devi Singh, requested to be taken into the friendship and protection of the British Government; but no definite arrangement was made till 1817, when a Treaty (No. XXII) was concluded with him.

Ranjit Singh died in 1827, and was succeeded by his son, Hindupat. In 1858 the Rani was allowed to administer the State as Regent, the Raja being of unsound mind.

In 1862 the Ruler of Samthar received a Sanad of Adoption (No. XXIII).

Hindupat had two sons, Chhatar Singh and Arjun Singh, the latter of whom was commonly known as Ali Bahadur. In 1864 Chhatar Singh, having attained his majority, asserted his claims to rule the State, and they were recognised by the Government of India.

In 1865 the pargana of Amra, roughly equivalent to a quarter of the State, was assigned to the Rani for the maintenance of herself, her husband and her younger son. The Rani died in 1880; but the arrangements were not disturbed, the assignment of the Amra pargana continuing for the support of Ali Bahadur and the ex-Chief. In 1883, owing to inconveniences caused by Ali Bahadur's management, the pargana of Amra was restored to Samthar: and the detached village of Sami, as well as cash allowances, were assigned for the maintenance of Ali Bahadur and his father, who were directed to vacate the Amra fort as soon as suitable accommodation had been provided for them at Sami.

In 1867 the Ruler of Samthar was granted a permanent salute of 11 guns.

In 1868 the claims of the State to an annual payment of Rs. 730, formerly made to it by the Jhansi villages of Manikpura and Nandpura, were admitted; and in full satisfaction of them the village of Sajauni in the Jalaun district was transferred to Samthar.

In 1872 all transit dues were abolished in Samthar territory.

In connection with the general scheme for the equalisation of salt duties, an Agreement (No. XXIV) was made with Chhatar Singh in 1879. By this he undertook to control the manufacture, import, transit, and taxation of salt, and was allowed in return an annual supply free of cost of 500 maunds of salt for consumption within his State. The agreement also prohibited the export of all intoxicating drugs, preparations and spirits by all routes and in all directions barred by the inland customs line. In 1884 this agreement was revised (No. XXV): and the State now receives Rs. 1,450 annually in lieu of the supply of salt mentioned above; while the restrictions contained in the Agreement of 1879 relative to the import, export and transit of salt were tentatively withdrawn, and have not yet been re-imposed.

In 1882 Chhatar Singh ceded land for the construction of the Betwa Canal, and was paid compensation. In 1888 an Agreement (see No. XX) was negotiated regarding cession of jurisdiction and other matters connected with the Canal.

All transit duties have been abolished in the Bundelkhand States at different dates during the last fifty-seven years, the abolition being usually notified in the Gazette of India, as in the case of Orchha in 1880. It is extremely difficult to estimate the revenue of the Bundelkhand.

It is extremely difficult to estimate the revenue of the Bundelkhand States, owing to the prevailing practice of giving large tracts of land on service tenure, instead of collecting the revenue and paving cash for service. None of the Bundelkhand Chiefs pay tribute in respect of the whole of their States; but three, namely Charkhari, Ajaigarh and Bihat, do so for certain villages or districts. The total amount of tribute paid annually by these three States is Rs. 16,997-5-6. Panna pays a quit-rent of Rs. 9,955 (q.v.). (For a list of these payments see Introduction to Vol. IV).

I. PANNA.

The Panna Chiefs are descended by blood from the Orchha house. During the anarchy that followed the death of Jujhan Singh, Champat Rai, a grandson of Udot Singh, brother of Madhukar Sah, Raja of Orchha, broke off all relations with Orchha and became the recognised Orchha, broke off all relations with Orchha and became the recognised Jeader of the Bundelas. His son Chhataraal acquired much territory east of the Dhasan river and founded Panna. On his death his possessions were divided, the town of Panna falling to his senior son Hirde Sah, who thus decame the first Raja of Panna.

When the British entered Bundelkhand, Raja Kishore Singh, sixth in succession from Hirde Sah, who was then a minor of about 12 or 13 years, was the Chief in possession of Panna, which was then in a most disorganised condition. A Sanad (No. XXVII) was conferred upon him in 1807 on his subscribing a deed of allegiance. This Sanad confirmed him in the possession of 802½ villages and three parganas. Many of the villages included in the Sanad were, however, in the possession of men who had wrested them the Baja and refused to give them up; but with the aid of the British Government he recovered not only these, but many other villages not entered in the recovered not only these, but many other villages not entered in the Sanad. A fresh Sanad (No. XXVIII) was therefore granted to him in 1811, by which he received in perpetuity 1,363½ villages.

The oppressive conduct of Raja Kishore Singh forced the British Government on several occasions to interpose. In 1823 he entrusted the management of his State to Knar Pratap Singh of Chhatarpur for four years, and the engagement was guaranteed by the British Government. But before the end of the period the conduct of Kishore Singh led to his expulsion from Panna, and the appointment of his son Harbans Rai as Regent. Kishore Singh died in exile in 1834, Harbans Rai, having no children, was succeeded, in 1849 by his brother Kirpat Singh; but the succession of Kirpat Singh was not acknowledged by the British Government till he had issued orders for the prohibition of sati throughout the Panna State.

For his services in the mutiny Nirpat Singh received, among other rewards, a khilat of the value of Rs. 20,000; but in 1862, in consequence of his resisting the settlement of houndary disputes, he had to be warned of the terms of allegiance on which he held his State.

In 1862 the Ruler of Panna received a Sanad of Adoption (No. XXIX).

In 1863 Nirpat Singh ceded certain lands required for railway purposes (No. XXX).

In 1867 the Ruler of Panna was granted a permanent salute of Nirpat Singh received in 1867 a Sanad (No. XXXI), conferring upon him, under certain conditions, supreme criminal jurisdiction within his territories; it was specified, however, that the powers thus granted were not necessarily transmissible to his successors. In 1869 the title of Mahendar was conferred on him by a Sanad (No. XXXII) in recognition of his loyalty to the British Government, This title was made hereditary in 1875, Maharaja Nirpat Singh, whose liberality in alleviating the distress which prevailed in Bundelkhand in 1869 had met with the marked approval of Government, died in June 1870, and was succeeded by his eldest son, Rudra Pratap Singh.

In 1887 supreme jurisdiction, under certain conditions, was conferred on Maharaja Rudra Pratap Singh by a Sanad (No. XXXIII), it powers were not necessarily transmissible to his successors. In February 1891 it was ruled that this Sanad had no application to any criminal case in which the person accused, or any one of the persons accused, is a European British subject or of European or American nationality.

In 1893 Rudra Pratap Singh died, and was succeeded by his brother Diwan Lokpal Singh, on whom supreme criminal jurisdiction was conferred under the usual conditions by a Sanad in 1896. In 1898 Lokpal Singh died, and was succeeded by his only son Madho Singh.

The Saugor-Katni Railway, for which land in the Raipur Pargana had been ceded free of cost in 1896, was opened on the lat January 1899. Full rights of civil and criminal jurisdiction, which had been originally ceded in 1896, were also conceded in the revised form in July 1899 (No. XXXIV).

In 1902 Madho Singh was deposed for complicity in the death of his uncle, Khuman Singh, by poison. He was interned at Bellary in the Madras Presidency, with a suitable allowance for his support. He was succeeded on the 20th June 1902 by his first cousin Yadvendra Singh, Khuman Singh's eldest son, who was born in 1893. During the minority of Yadvendra Singh the administration of the State was vested in a Diwan and Council supervised by the Political Agent.

In 1905 a lease of the Darbar's excise rights in certain isolated outlying villages situated wholly in the Damoh District was granted to the Central Provinces Administration. For the Ken Canal land was ceded in 1906, on payment of the usual compensation, and in 1908 the State entered into an Agreement (No. XXXV) regarding jurisdiction and other matters connected with the working of the Canal.

Maharaja Yadvendra Singh was invested with full ruling powers on the 4th February 1915. In 1921 a Sanad (No. XXXVI) conferring hereditary extended judicial powers was granted to him.

In 1921 the Imperial Postal Department agreed to take over the whole of the Postal arrangements in the State, and the Darbar were given a free supply of Service Postage Stamps for State correspondence of the face value of Rs. 900 a year.

The area of Panna is about 2,596 square miles; the population, by the Census of 1921, 197,600; and the revenue about Rs. 10,68,299. A small and fluctuating revenue is also derived from the diamond mines near Panna. The Maharaja pays a quit-rent of Rs. 9,955 on the districts

2. Ingasi.

Diwan Dhiraj Singh, grandson of Hirde Sah, was in possession of seven villages during the government of the Bundela Rajas and also during the period of Ali Bahadur's anthority. After the establishment of the British Government he was maintained in possession, and on the 9th December 1808 received a Sanad (No. XXXVII) after executing the usual deed of allegiance.

In consequence of the infirmities of age Dhiraj Singh, in 1814, requested permission to abdicate in favour of his second son Sardar Singh. The preference to his eldest son Padam Singh, who four years before had rebelled against him, and had only submitted before a detachment of British troops, and on receiving a separate assignment of land for his support. This was sanctioned on condition of Padam Singh being permanently secured in his jagir, in order that he might not be driven by his necessities to any desperate steps in asserting his claim to the succession. It was not considered necessary to issue a new Sanad to Sardar sion. It was not considered necessary to issue a new Sanad to Sardar Singh. Dhiraj Singh died in 1819.

During the mutiny of 1857 half the villages of Lugasi were laid waste by the rebels in consequence of the fidelity of Sardar Singh to the British Government. In reward for his services Sardar Singh received a jagir of Rs. 2,000 a year, and a khilat worth Rs. 10,000. The privilege of adoption, accorded to him at the same time, was subsequently confirmed in 1862 by a Sanad (No. XXXVIII) granted to his successor.

Sardar Singh died in 1860, and was succeeded by his grandson Hira Singh, his son, Murat Singh, having died previously. Hira Singh engaged in 1862 (No. XXXIX) to keep clear roads through the jungles in the jagir which was granted to his grandfather. This agreement was in the jagir which was restored to the jagirdar, as it was culturable; while he, on his part, provided 600 bighas of grass land in Barat Sureri for the horses of the cavalry regiment quartered at Nowgong. Hira Singh died in 1872, and was succeeded by his son Khet Singh, with the heredifary title of Diwan. On the latter's death in 1902, his eldest son Chhatrapati Singh succeeded. He died on the 30th November 1917 and was succeeded by his infant son Bhopal Singh, born on the 31st October 1916. During his minority the administration of the Jagir is under the supervision of the Agency.

The area of Lugasi is 45.33 square miles; the population, by the Census of 1921, 6,182; and the revenue Rs. 30,000.

3. Силякнаят.

This Chiefship dates from 1765, when Khuman Singh, a great-grandson of Chlatarsal, received Charkhari from Pahar Singh of Jaitpur. During the subsequent dissensions among the descendants of Chlatarsal, sije Bahadur, the son and successor of Khuman Singh, lost possession of the State of Charkhari; but, when Ali Bahadur invaded Bundelkhand Bije Bahadur accompanied him. All the Charkhari territory was conquered by Ali Bahadur. who assigned to Bije Bahadur lands yielding about four lakha of rupees on his entering into engagements* of fidelity and allegiance.

Bije Bahadur was the first of the Bundela Chiefs who submitted to the authority of the British Government; and a Sanad (No. XI.) was granted to him in 1804. A new Sanad (No. XI.I) was given to him in 1811, Ratan Singh died in 1860, and was succeeded by his minor son Jan Singh Deo, whose mother, Rani Bakht Knar, was appointed Regent, on the condition that she would be recognised as such only so long as she and the two ministers designated by the late Raja, Maulvi Siraj Husain and Diwan Anna Sahib, acted in harmony and without mischievous differences of any kind. The Rani, however, strove to assume an unlue share of power, and this eventually led to her removal from the Regency. Shortly afterwards dissensions broke out between the two ministers, and it was found necessary to appoint a British officer to act as referee. On the death of Siraj Husain in 1866 the British officer was withdrawn, and the administration was left in the hands of Diwan Anna Sahib; who, however, died in the following year, when his son Tantia Sahib was appointed manager.

In 1862 the Ruler of Charkhari received a Sanad of Adoption (see No. XXXVIII): and in 1867 was granted a permanent salute of 11 guns.

In 1866 the Charkhari State ceded (No. XLII) the parganas of Fatehpur, Hirapur and Meradeo, receiving in lieu thereof villages of the aggregate annual value of Rs. 29,525, A sum of Rs. 29,029 was also

The founder of the Bijawar family was Bir Singh Deo, an illegitimate son of Jagat Raj. When Ali Bahadur invaded Bundelkhand, Bir Singh Deo refused to acknowledge bis supremacy and was killed fighting against him near Charkhari. Raja Himmat Bahadur, however, made interest with Ali Bahadur on behalf of Kesri Singh, son of Bir Singh Deo, and procured for him his father's possessions on the same terms as those and procured for him his father's possessions on the same terms as those subscribed by the Raja of Charkhari.

Kesri Singh was the Chief who was in possession of Bijawar when the British Government obtained supremacy in Bundelkhand. Owing to complicated disputes with Raja Bije Bahadur of Charkhari regarding the pargana of Ramgarh, and with Kunwar Sone Sah of Chhatarpur regarding the villages of Dharampur, Bajra, Sathai and Karaiya, no Sanad was granted to Kesri Singh. He died in December 1810, and was succeeded by his son Ratan Singh, who on his accession in 1811 (the disputes with neighbouring States having in the meantime been decided) received a Sanad (No. XIIV) and was required to sign a deed of allegiance, the 10th Article of which was specially intended to prevent the giance, the 10th Article of which was specially intended to prevent the revival of old, or the setting up of new, claims against neighbouring revival Ratan Singh died in 1833 without male issue; and, at the request of his widow, his nephew Lachhman Singh was recognised as his successor. Lachhman Singh was succeeded in 1847 by his son, Bhan Pratap Singh. For his services in the mutiny he received rewards, including a khilat.

In 1862 the Ruler of Bijawar received a Sanad of Adoption (see No. XIII): and in 1867 was granted a permanent salute of 11 guns. In 1866 the Government of India decided that in future the Chief of Bijawar should be called Maharaja: and in 1877, on the occasion of the Delhi Assemblage, he was granted the hereditary title of Sawai. In 1867 Bhan Pratap Singh received a Sanad (see No. XXXI) granting him full criminal powers within his State; but in 1887 his powers of supreme criminal jurisdiction were withdrawn: and, owing to consupreme criminal jurisdiction were withdrawn: and, owing to consupreme criminal jurisdiction were withdrawn: and, owing to consupreme

In 1898, having no male issue, the Chief adopted as his heir the second son of the Alaharaja of Orchha, the Chief adopted as his heir the second son of the Alaharaja of Orchha, and the adoption was sanctioned by the Government of India.

Bhan Pratap Singh died on the 15th September 1899, and Sawant Singh's succession was resented by the leading Thakurs; but their almost overt hostility was suppressed by the temporary internment of the ring-leaders at Nowgong, and the resumption of their jagira till such time as they showed themselves ready to resume their allegiance. Maharaja Sawai Sawant Singh was publicly installed on the 28th June 1900. In January 1903 he was given administrative powers under certain conditions, which were relaxed in October 1904. In the Sanad (No. LVI), granted to him in 1806, the town of Chhatarpur and four thanas which were in his possession during the lifetime of Ali Bahadur, with the towns of Mhow and Salat, which he had usurped after Ali Bahadur's death, were reserved by the British Government; and in consideration of this, Government remitted to him, as a provision for his son Pratap Singh, the tribute of Rs. 19,000 which he paid to Ali Bahadur.

Government, however, were of opinion that it might be expedient to restore Chhatarpur and the four thanas, on the understanding that Sone Sah would be responsible for the peace of his own territories. The restoration was not made till 1808, when Mhow was given to Sone Sah and Chhatarpur to his son Pratap Singh,* on the withdrawal of the British troops from that quarter.

In 1812 Sone Sah made a distribution of his territories among his five Later he was persuaded by his younger sons to make another distribution, by which the share of Pratap Singh, the elder, was considerably lessened, and all the brothers were declared to be independent of each other. Government disapproved of this partition as being both unjust to Pratap Singh and opposed to the policy of the British Government, which desired to prevent the dismemberment of the Bundelkhand States; and the Raja was informed that if, in consequence thereof, any necessity for interference arose after his death, Government would unhold the rights of Government also refused to recognise the hereditary des-Pratap Singh. cent of the shares of the vounger brothers in their families, and directed the Agent, on the death of Sone Sah, to assume the first distribution of the State as the basis of an arrangement with Pratap Singh; the other brothers, Himmat Singh, Prithwi Singh, Hindupat and Bakht Singh, holding their shares for life in subordination to Pratap Singh. instructions were carried out on the death of Sone Sah in 1815, and were confirmed by Sanads granted in 1816 to the five hrothers, from each of whom a corresponding engagement was taken (No. LVII). After the shares of the brothers had been allotted, some exchanges took place for mutual accommodation. Pratap Singh had incurred much expense in fortifying the fort of Deora, which commanded the passes through the hills. This was in the share allotted to Bakht Singh, but the possession of it was necessary to enable Pratap Singh to fulfil his obligation to keep marauders in check. The districts of Deora and Kariani were therefore given to Pratap Singh, in exchange for Raigarh and Teloha, which were given to Bakht Singh. Prithwi Singh's share contained no town with a convenient place of residence, and to meet his wishes in this respect Bakht the Sanad granted to Pratap Singh contained the names of thirty-villages not entered in the Sanad of Sone Sah. Many of these were lets dependent on villages named in the Sanad of 1806, but twenty-of them were claimed by Raja Kishore Singh of Panna. It was d, however, that all these villages were in possession of Sone Sah at time of Ali Bahadur's death, and his possession of them was theremaintained. Possession at the time of Ali Bahadur's death was need in this, as in other cases, to constitute the standard for the standard of all such claims.

In the deaths of Himmat Singh, Prithwi Singh and Hindupat, their rs reverted to the Chhatarpur State. Bakht Singh was unable to age his jagir and made it over to Pratap Singh, who gave him in lieu an allowance of Rs. 2,250 a month. In this jagir there was an asment of three villages, which had been made to the Dichhit family of gong by Hindupat. Pratap Singh made various attempts to resume e villages, but was always compelled by the British Government to draw, on the ground that the family had a right to the jagir by virof old grants from Hindupat. While, however, the right of the Raja hhatarpur to resume these villages was denied, his supremacy over Dichhit family was recognised, and the family were declared to be canteed subordinates of Chhatarpur. Thus the Dichhit Jagirdar is of the rank of a Bundelkhand Chief, nor has he any claim to a separ-Sanad from the British Government. It is accordingly incumbent him to refer such questions, as the abolition of transit dues within jagir, to the Chhatarpur Chief for his concurrence. In 1919, on the unption by the Chhatarpur Darbar of certain plots of land in the villof Mau, the status of the Chhatarpur State in relation to the Bilehri afi was more clearly defined, by the decision of the Government of ia that the jurisdiction in the Estate, which had for some years been n the Political Agent, should be restored to the Chhatarpur Darbar certain conditions. In accordance with this decision the State asied control of the Muafi with effect from the 20th January 1920, and nted a Sanad to the Muafidar in respect of the lands in Man.

When Sone Sah died in 1815, his second, third and fourth sons, amat Singh, Prithwi Singh and Hindupat, had rebelled against tap Singh and had resisted his resumption of Sone Sah's jagir; but thwi Singh at last accepted, under British guarantee, a money stipend in Pratap Singh on condition of residing out of Chhatarpur: an argement by which Prithwi Singh was considered to have forfeited any hat that he might otherwise have had to the succession.

In 1852 Pratap Singh proposed to adopt and nominate as his heir Jagat , grandson of his youngest brother, Bakht Singh, to the exclusion of Kunjal Sah, son of Prithwi Singh. A reference was made to the Chiefe of Orchha, Charkhari, Bijwar, Panna, Ajaigarh, Datia and Shahgarh, as to the right of Pratap Singh to adopt Jagat Raj. They gave it as their opinion that, according to the practice of the Chiefs of Bundelkhand, Pratap Singh had a right to select Jagat Raj and to pass over Kunjal The Court of Directors, however, disapproved of reference to the arbitration of the Bundelkhand Chiefs as a means of settling such questions; but, before it was decided whether Pratap Singh should be allowed to adopt Jagat Raj, or whether the State should lapse on his death, Pratap Singh died in 1854. The Court of Directors ruled that Kunjal Sah had no right to the succession, the Sanad of 1806 being only a life grant: and that, as the Sanad of 1817 limited the succession to the lineal heirs male of Pratap Singh, and Pratap Singh had died childless, the State of Chhatarpur had clearly lapsed. Moreover, they declined to recognise any right on the part of Jagat Raj in consequence of his adoption by Pratap Singh. But in consideration of the fidelity of the family and the good government of Pratap Singh, Government consented in 1854, as an act of grace and favour, to grant the State to Jagat Raj under a new Sanad (No. LVIII), the succession being strictly limited to him and his male descendants. The widow of Pratap Singh was made Regent during the minority of Jagat Raj, but was removed from the Regency in 1863, in consequence of her unsatisfactory management, and because of the asylum she gave to rebels in the Chhatarpur territory. A British officer was deputed to Chhatarpur to superintend the administration and instruct the young Chief in his duties.

In 1862 the Ruler of Chhatarpur received a Sanad of Adoption (see No. XXIII): and in 1867 was granted a permanent salute of 11 guns.

Jagat Raj was entrusted with the management of the State early in 1867 but died in the following November, leaving an infant son Vishwanath Singh, born on the 29th August 1866, who was recognised as his successor. From 1867 to 1887, except for a short period (from 1876 to 1878) the State remained under British supervision. But on the 29th August 1887 the Chief, having then completed his twenty-first year, was invested with full administrative powers subject to the conditions usually imposed in such cases. In 1894 Raja Vishwanath Singh was empowered under certain conditions (No. LIX) to exercise criminal jurisdiction over heinous offences within his State as a personal distinction: these powers were made hereditary in 1921 (see No. XXXVI). On the 25th May 1895 the title of Maharaja was conferred on him as a personal distinction: and this was made hereditary (No. LX) in June 1919.

In 1905 Maharaja Vishwanath Singh ceded land for the construction of the Ken Canal, on payment of compensation for the area required: and on the 20th October 1908 the State entered into an Agreement similar to the one executed by Panna (see No. XXXV) regarding jurisdiction and other matters connected with the working of the Ken Canal.

A yearly payment of Rs. 3,249-10-3 is made to the State of Chhatar-pur for land acquired in 1869 for an addition to the Nowgong Cantonment. Similarly, compensation is paid to the muafidar of Bilehri, through Chhatarpur, amounting to Rs. 2,838-9, for land acquired for the Nowgong Cantonment in 1845 and 1869.

The area of Chhatarpur is about 1,130 square miles; the population, according to the Census of 1921, 166,549; and the revenue about Rs. 7,00,000.

The military forces consist (1926) of 21 Cavalry, 100 Infantry and 296 Armed Police, with 29 serviceable and 3 unserviceable guns.

Nazarana at the rate of a quarter of a year's net revenue on direct succession, and half a year's net revenue on succession by adoption, was taken up to 1911 when all Nazarana levies were abolished on the occasion of the Coronation Darbar.

10. Binar.*

The ancestors of the Bihat family, who are Bundela Rajputs, received service grants from the descendants of Hirde Sah and these were continued during the government of Ali Bahadur. Diwan Aparbal Singh and his relative, Diwan Chhatri, were found in possession at the time of the British occupation, and the usual Sanads (No. LXI) were conferred on them in 1807.

Aparbal Singh was succeeded by his son Bankat Rao, and he in 1828 by his son Kamod Singh. Kamod Singh was succeeded in 1846 by his son Hirde Sah, who died in 1859, and was succeeded by his uncle Govind Das, brother of Kamod Singh.

In 1862 the Chief received a Sanad of Adoption (see No. LV).

Govind Das died in 1872 and was succeeded by his son Mahum Singh.

The Jagirdar agreed in 1903 to grant land for the construction of the Dhasan Canal through his territory on the same terms as now exist in the case of the Betwa Canal.

Mahum Singh died on the 25th January 1908 and was succeeded by his son Bir Singh Ju Deo, born on the 16th May 1902.

In 1908 the Jagir entered into an agreement with the United Provinces Government in respect of the closure of the opium and hemp drug shops in the villages of Alipura and Naikpura in the Bihat Jagir.

In 1923 the Government of India decided that the Jagirdar should be designated Rao of Bihat.

^{*}DeCruz makes the mistake of including Bihat among the Chaube jagirs-Political Relations, page 48.

Rao Bir Singh Ju Deo was invested with full administrative powers on the 15th January 1925.

The area of Bihat is 16 square miles; the population, according to the Census of 1921, 4,786; and the revenue Rs. 27,000. The Jagirdar of Bihat pays a tribute of Rs. 1,400 a year for the village of Lohargaon.

Under the terms of the Adoption Sanad, nazarana at the rate of a quarter of a year's net revenue on direct successions, and half a year's net revenue on successions by adoption, was taken up to 1911, when all Nazarana levies were abolished on the occasion of the Coronation Darbar.

11. ALIPURA.

The lands composing this Jagir were granted by Hindupat, grandson of Hirde Sah, to Achal Singh, a Parihar Rajput, and the grant was continued to his son Diwan Pratap Singh by Ali Bahadur. Pratap Singh was in possession at the time of the British occupation, and the Jagir was confirmed to him by a Sanad (No. LXII) in 1808.

Pratap Singh left four sons, the eldest of whom, Pancham Singh, succeeded him. In 1835 Pancham Singh divided the jagir between himself and his three brothers, Tilak Singh, Jawahir Singh and Kishore Singh, but the division was not reported to, or recognised by, Government. In 1846 Kishore Singh died leaving a grandson, Bakht Singh. As the subdivision of the Jagir had led to disturbances, Kishore Singh's share was re-annexed to the Jagir, Bakht Singh being allowed to retain lands yielding Rs. 3,000 a year. It was soon afterwards decided that no Jagir held under Sanad from the British Government should be converted by sub-division into a zamindari without the previous sanction of Government. In 1849 Jawahir Singh died after having adopted one of Bakht Singh's sons. Bakht Singh, who had resisted the resumption of his grandfather's share, seized that left by Jawahir Singh, but was compelled by force to yield and retire on an allowance of Rs. 3,000 a year from the Jagirdar of Alipura.

In 1852 an arrangement was effected by which lands of the annual value of Rs. 6,000 were assigned to Kishore Singh's family: this was subsequently modified and a cash payment of the same amount was substituted. In the meantime Tilak Singh had died, and his share had been allowed to descend to his two sons. This gave Bakht Singh ground for further agitation; but it was decided that he had received every consideration, and the Jagirdar was given permission to re-annex Tilak Singh's share on making a suitable provision for the family. Bakht Singh refused to accept this decision and, on the outbreak of the mutiny of 1857, took part in the rebellion. On his surrender in 1865 he was tried for dakaiti and murder, but was acquitted for want of evidence. In 1868 the cash allowance of Rs. 6,000 was divided among Kishore Singh's family. According to recognised custom Jagat Raj, the eldest son of Kishore Singh, would have received Rs. 2,300, and his two brothers Rs. 1,850 each. On the same principle, Bakht Singh, the eldest of the sons of Jagat Raj, received Rs. 880 out of his father's share of Rs. 2,300, and his younger brothers received Rs. 710 each. Both of these have since died, and their heirs receive half the allowance. To secure the peace of Alipura and its neighbourhood, Bakht Singh was kept under surveillance at Gwalior.

In 1862 the Chief of Alipura received a Sanad of Adoption (see No. LII).

Hindupat, who was the great-grandson of Pratap Singh in the direct male line, and had succeeded in 1840, died in 1871 and was succeeded by his son Chhatarpati.

In 1884 the Jagirdar ceded land for the Jhansi-Manikpur Section of the Great Indian Peninsula Railway, receiving compensation for the area acquired, and in 1888 he ceded (No. LXIII) criminal and civil jurisdiction thereon to the British Government.

The Jagirdar consented in 1903 to grant land for the construction of the Dhasan Canal through his territory on the same terms as now exist in the case of the Betwa Canal.

In 1916 the Jagir ceded land to the United Provinces Irrigation Department for the construction of the Pahari and Lachura reservoirs in the Dhasan river (Nos. LXIV and LXV).

Chhatarpati died on the 26th March 1922 and was succeeded by his son Harpal Singh, born on the 12th August 1882. Owing to his father's ill-health, he had assisted him in the administration of the Jagir from 1901 to 1919, and had held sole charge of it, with the approval of Government, since 1919.

In 1923 the Government of India decided that the Jagirdar should be designated the Rao of Alipura.

In 1931 the personal title of Raja was conferred on Rao Harpal Singh.

The area of Alipura is about 73 square miles; the population, by the Census of 1921, 14,580; and the revenue about Rs. 50,000.

Under the terms of the Adoption Sanad the Jagir was held subject to the payment of nazarana, of a quarter of a year's net revenue on succession by adoption, up to 1911, when all Nazarana levies were abolished on the occasion of the Coronation Darbar.

12. GAURIHAR.

Raja Ram was Governor of the fort of Burhagarh, in the service of Guman Singh, ancestor of the Rajas of Ajaigarh. During the anarchy of the times he rebelled against his master, and for a short while held the fort successfully against Ali Bahadur. At the time of the British occupation of Bundelkhand he was at the head of a band of professed plunderers, and for long disturbed the peace of the country. The Raja of Ajaigarh was bound by the 5th Article of his Engagement (No. XLVI), to reduce Raja Ram to obedience and to grant him subsistence; but he was unable to do this either by persuasion or force, and the resistance of Raja Ram was so successful that Government sanctioned the offer of Rs. 30,000 for his capture. But before the proclamation was issued he was induced to surrender on the promise of receiving a territorial possession on terms similar to those granted to the Bundelkhand Chiefs. He received his Sanad (No. LXVI) on the 29th November 1807.

Raja Ram died in 1846, and was succeeded by his only surviving son Sawai Rajdhar Rudra Singh. For his services during the mutiny of 1857 Sawai Rajdhar Rudra Singh received a khilat worth Rs. 1,000.

In 1862 the Chief received a Sanad of Adoption (see No. XXXVIII).

Sawai Rajdhar Rudra Singh died without issue in 1877. On his death-bed he requested the Political Agent to move the Government to permit his widow to adopt an heir to the Jagir. For three years no action was taken regarding the succession, and the widow in the meantime managed the Estate. In 1880 it was reported that she had adopted Gajadhar Prasad, a relative of the late Chief, and Government approved of his succession. Gajadhar Prasad died in 1887, leaving neither a natural uor an adopted heir: and Shamle Prasad, a member of a collateral branch of the family, was selected by Government as successor to the Chiefship.

Shamle Prasad died on the 2nd April 1904, and was succeeded by his eldest son, Prithpal Singh, born in 1886, during whose minority the Jagir was administered by his mother with the help of a Kamdar appointed by the Political Agent. In August 1911 Prithpal Singh was granted full administrative powers, but these were withdrawn in December 1913 and the Jagir was placed under the supervision of the Political Agent. His powers were restored in April 1915 with certain restrictions, which were withdrawn in July 1918 but again imposed in December 1920. The family are Jijhotia Brahmans.

The area of Gaurihar is 71 square miles; the population, according to the Census of 1921, 9.486; and the revenue about Rs. 55,000.

The Jagir was liable to the Nazarana rules up to 1911 when all such levies were abolished on the occasion of the Coronation Darbar.

13. GARRATULE.

Gonal Singh of Garrauli was one of the most active and daring of the military adventurers who opposed the occupation of Bundelkhand by the British Government. He had been in the service of Durjan Singh and

Hari Singh, the grandsons of Chhatarsal, and on the invasion of Ali Bahadur he seized the pargana of Kotra for himself. For years he resisted all efforts of persuasion or force to reduce him to submission; but, being at last convinced of the hopelessness of the unequal contest with the British troops, he submitted on condition of receiving a full pardon and a provision in land. A Sanad (No. LXVII) was given to him in 1812.

As an inducement to Gopal Singh to submit, the Raja of Panna, whom Gopal Singh had befriended in distress, gave him eighteen additional villages. The Raja of Panna asserted that these villages were given on a service tenure; but in 1821, after full enquiry, it was decided that no such condition was annexed to the grant. The villages continued with Gopal Singh till his death in 1831, when they were resumed by the Raja of Panna, the original grant having been only for the life of Gopal Singh.

Gopal Singh was succeeded by Diwan Bahadur Parichat.

In 1862 the Chief received a Sanad of Adoption (see No. LV).

Diwan Bahadur Parichat died in 1884, and was succeeded by his infant grandson Chandra Bhan Singh, who was born on the 2nd April 1883.

In 1884 the Jagirdar ceded land for the Jhansi-Manikpur Section of the Great Indian Peninsula Railway, receiving compensation for the area acquired; and in 1888 he ceded (No. LXVIII) criminal and civil jurisdiction thereon to the British Government.

In 1898, on the death of the Superintendent appointed by Government, the administration was entrusted to the Jagirdar's mother. On the 1st July 1904 the management was transferred to Chandra Bhan Singh, on his attaining his majority; but his extravagance necessitated interference and the temporary restoration of the administration to his mother in 1905. She died in 1909, and administrative powers were restored to Chandra Bhan Singh on the 11th February 1910, on certain conditions which were subsequently withdrawn.

The Jagirdar agreed in 1903 to grant land for the construction of the Dhasan Canal through his territory on the same terms as now exist in the case of the Betwa Canal.

In 1908 the Jagirdar entered into an agreement with the United Provinces Government in respect of the closure of opium and drug shops in certain villages of the Jagir.

In 1915 the Jagirdar ceded land to the United Provinces Irrigation Department for the construction of the Pahari Reservoir in the Dhasan River (No. LXIX): and in 1921 a final Agreement was executed in respect to this land (No. LXX).

The family are Bundela Rajputs.

The area of Garrauli is about 39 square miles, the population, by the Census of 1921, 4,817; and the revenue about Rs. 35,000.

Under the terms of the Adoption Sanad nazarana of a quarter of a year's net revenue on direct succession, and half a year's net revenue on succession by adoption, was taken up to 1911, when all Nazarana levies were abolished on the occasion of the Coronation Darbar.

14. NAIGAWAN REBAI.

Lachhman Singh, one of the banditti leaders of Bundelkhand, was induced to surrender on promise of pardon. He received in 1807 a Sanad (No. LXXI) for five villages. He died in 1808, and was succeeded by his son Jagat Singh. In 1850 it was decided that the Jagir of Naigawan Rebai is held merely on a life tenure, and ought to have been resumed on the death of Lachhman Singh. It was, however, continued to Jagat Singh, who had been so long in possession, on the distinct understanding that it was to lapse absolutely at his death. In the meantime, however, in 1862, a Sanad of Adoption (see No. LV) was granted: and on the Jagirdar's death in 1867 the succession of his widow, Larai Duthaiya, In 1893 the Jagirdarin adopted Viswanath Singh, a was sanctioned. distant connection: the adoption was sanctioned by the Government of India and his right of succession to Thakurain Larai Dulhaiya was recognised. Vishwanath Singh was granted administrative powers on the 8th March 1909.

In 1908 the Jagir entered into an agreement with the United Provinces Government in respect of the closure of liquor, opium and drug shops in the villages of Churari and Ragauli in the Jagir.

The Jagirdar enjoys the title of Kunwar.

The area of Naigawan Rebai is 12.25 square miles; the population, by the Census of 1921, 2,113; and the revenue Rs. 14,000.

Nazarana of a quarter of a year's net revenue on direct succession, and half a year's net revenue on succession by adoption, was taken up to 1911, when all Nazarana levies were abolished on the occasion of the Coronation Darbar.

15. BAONI.

Baoni is the only Muhammadan State in Bundelkhand. Nawab Ghazi-ud-Din Khan, grandson of Asaf Jah, Nizam-ul-Mulk of Hyderabad, received from the Peshwa a grant of fifty-two villages near Kalpi. At the time of the British occupation of Bundelkhand his son Nasir-ud-Daula was found in possession of forty-nine of these villages, three having been usurped by the subordinate agents of the Peshwa's Government without authority from the Poona Darbar. The Nawab submitted a paper of requests in 1806 (No. LXXII) claiming the continuance of these villages: and, although actual possession was wanting to complete the ground of claim to three of them, yet, as a measure of liberality and in consideration of the rank of the Nawab and his exemplary conduct from the time of the British occupation, it was resolved to continue to him the whole of the villages comprised in the Peshwa's grant to his father. But the grant of a Sanad was withheld until the claims of the Nana of Kalpi could be adjusted, as the specific nature and extent of the Nawab's authority and privileges within his jagir might depend in a great measure on the nature of the settlement with the Nana. During the investigation of the Nana's claims it appeared that he stood to the Peshwa in the position of a tributary, and that the district of Kalpi, in which lay the Nawab's jagir, did not form part of the lands actually held by the Peshwa and ceded under the Treaty of Bassein (see Vol. VII, The Pesh-It was therefore ruled that the British Government had no right to grant a Sanad for the villages constituting the Nawab's jagir, to exercise any authority over the Nawab and his possessions, or to ratify the paper of requests which the Nawab had presented. But Government considered that there were no objections to the execution of a deed recognising the validity of the Peshwa's Sanad; and this was accordingly done in a letter addressed to the Nawab by the Governor-General on the 24th December 1806. Any claims to independence of the British Government, which the Nawab might have been disposed to base on this decision, were extinguished in 1817, when the Peshwa ceded all his sovereign rights to the British Government.

Nasir-ud-Daula died in 1815, and was succeeded by his son Amir-ul-Mulk, who was succeeded in 1838 by his son Muhammad Husain Khan. In 1856 the Nawab requested that he might be permitted to proceed on a pilgrimage to Mecca, and that his eldest son Mehdi Husain Khan might be recognised in the succession; and, with a view to prevent quarrels, he proposed to settle allowances amounting to Rs. 9,000 a year upon the other members of his family. These arrangements were sanctioned, but owing to the mutiny and other causes the Nawab did not go on the pilgrimage. Nevertheless Mehdi Husain Khan continued to be addressed as Nawab, and to have sole charge of the administration till the death of his father Muhammad Husain Khan, which took place in 1859. After the death of Muhammad Husain Khan, one of his sons, Abdulla Husain Khan, endeavonred to cast suspicion on Mehdi Husain Khan's birth and so secure the succession to himself; but after enquiry Government recognised Mehdi Husain Khan as the legitimate heir.

In 1862 the Ruler of Baoni received an Adoption Sanad (No. LXXIII).

In 1863, as a reward for various liberal measures adopted by the Nawab, and particularly the abolition of transit duties within the limits of his State, Government sanctioned an addition to his complimentary titles.

In 1867 the Nawab received a Sanad (see No. XXXI), granting him, under certain conditions, supreme criminal jurisdiction within his lands; these powers were not necessarily transmissible to his successors.

In the same year the Ruler of Baoni was granted a permanent salute of 11 guns.

In 1874, at the special request of the Nawab, who was in ill-health, the management of the State was taken over by Government. In 1883 he abdicated, with the approval of the Government of India, in favour of his son Muhammad Hasan Khan, then about twenty-three years of age, receiving a cash allowance for his own maintenance.

In 1884 Baoni ceded land for the Betwa Canal, receiving the usual compensation, and in 1888 entered into an Agreement (see No. XX), ratified in 1889, regarding the cession of jurisdiction and other matters connected with the Canal.

Full criminal jurisdiction, under certain conditions, was conferred on Muhammad Hasan Khan by a Sanad (see No. XXXIII) in 1887, the powers not being necessarily transmissible to his successors. In February 1891 it was ruled that the Sanad did not apply to any criminal case in which the person accused, or any one of the persons accused, was a European British subject, or of European or American nationality.

Muhammad Hasan Khan died at Mecca in 1893. He was succeeded by his first cousin Riaz-ul-Hasan Khan. The ex-Nawab Mehdi Husain Khan died in 1895. In 1903 the administration, till then vested in a Superintendent appointed by Government, was placed, under certain restrictions, in the young Nawab's hands.

Riaz-ul-Hasan Khan died on the 27th October 1911 and was succeeded by his eldest son Muhammad Mustaqul Hassan Khan who was invested with full ruling powers on the 7th February 1918.

A Sanad (see No. XXXVI) conferring hereditary eriminal powers on the Ruler was granted in 1921.

The revised complimentary titles of the Nawab, which have been recognised as hereditary by the Government of India, are Azam-ul-Um-ara, Iftikhar-ud-Daula, Imad-ul-Mulk, Sahib-i-Jah, Mihin Sirdar, and Safdar-Jung.

The area of Baoni is 121 square miles; the population, by the Census of 1921, 19,734; and the revenue about Rs. 1,95,000.

The military forces consist (1926) of 5 Cavalry, 32 Infantry and 5 Artillery men with 2 serviceable guns.

In accordance with the terms of its Adoption Sanad the Baoni State was liable to the payment of uazarana at the rate of half a year's net revenue, whenever the succession did not go to a direct lineal heir, up to 1911, when all Nazarana levies were abolished on the occasion of the Coronation Darbar.

16. THE HASHT-BHAIYA JAGIRS.

These jagirs originally formed part of the Orchha State. The founder of the family was Diwan Rai Singh, great-great-grandson of Bir Singh Deo, one of the Rajas of Orchha, who possessed the jagir of Baragaon. The name of Hasht-Bhaiya Jagirs is derived from the fact of Diwan Rai Singh having divided his jagir of Baragaon into eight shares, Kari, Pasari, Tarauli, Chirgaon, Dhurwai, Bijna, Tori Fatehpur and Banka Pahari, among his eight sons. The jagir of Kari (or Dudpur) became at an early date merged in the other shares; Tarauli reverted to Orchha; and Pasari was incorporated in the Jhansi district and is now British territory. The dismemberment of the Orchha State by the Mahrattas and the formation of the separate State of Jhansi led to disputed claims between Orchha and Jhansi as to the supremacy over the remaining five A careful investigation was made in 1821, and it was decided that these jagirs should be considered directly dependent on the British Government, through whom the tribute levied by the Jhansi State would be paid; but that the jagirdars should continue the usual observances to the Raja of Orchha as the nominal head of the family. The Jhansı Chief, however, had seized several of the villages belonging to these jagirs, and was allowed to retain them in lieu of the tribute* which would otherwise have been exacted. These arrangements were embodied in Sanads (No. LXXIV) which were granted in 1821 and 1823 to the jagirdars. For the jagir of Tarauli, which had reverted to Orchha, the Chief of Orchha was required to pay an annual tribute of Rs. 3,000 to This tribute became payable to the British Government on the lapse of Jhansi, but it was remitted in 1860 as a reward for the services rendered by the Raja of Orchha during the mutiny. Chirgaon was confiscated in 1841 for the rebellion of the Jagirdar Bakht Singh, so that of the original eight shares into which the jagir of Baragaon was divided. there remain now only the four holdings which are described below.

(a) DHURWAI.

Diwan Budh Singh of Dhurwai, to whom the Sanad was given in 1823, was succeeded by his son Nahar Singh, and he, in 1851, by his son Ranjor Singh.

In 1862 the Jagirdar received a Sanad of Adoption (see No. LV).

In 1882 the Jagirdar ceded land for the Betwa Canal, receiving compensation for the area acquired.

In 1883 the orders regarding divisions and reversions of shares in two of the three groups into which the family is divided for the purpose of succession were modified, and it was ruled that future devolutions should be regulated by the claims of legal shareholders.

In 1898 the Jagirdar proved himself incapable of controlling his co-sharers; accordingly, to secure the regular repayment of the Gwalior famine loan, the jagir was taken under management by the Political Agent till 1902. In that year an arrangement was made under which the co-sharers were to contribute to the cost of the Jagirdar's administration. In 1906 the jagir, which had been reduced to bankruptcy by the improvidence of the Jagirdar and the co-sharers, was again taken under management by the Political Agent.

In 1908 the Jagir entered into an agreement with the United Provinces Government in respect of the closure of the opium and hemp drug shops in the villages of Richhaura and Garari.

Ranjor Singh died in November 1910 and was succeeded by his son Diwan Jugal Prasad Singh, the present Jagirdar, who was born in 1896. He was invested with administrative powers on the 1st July 1918. Owing to dissensions amongst Hissedars, the impoverished condition of the Jagir and the Jagirdar's inability to control the Hissedars, the powers granted in 1918 were modified in 1921, the revenue administration of the Jagir and the general supervision being placed in the hands of the Political Agent, whilst the Jagirdar continues to exercise judicial powers.

The area of Dhurwai is about 15 square miles; the population, by the Census of 1921, 1,880; and the revenue about Rs. 14,000.

Dhurwai was liable to pay nazarana in accordance with the terms of its Adoption Sanad up to 1911, when all such levies were abolished on the occasion of the Coronation Darbar.

(b) Bijna.

Diwan Surjan Singh of Bijna was succeeded in 1839 by his son Khande Rao, and he, in 1850, by his son Makund Singh.

In 1862 the Jagirdar received a Sanad of Adoption (see No. LV).

Makund Singh died in December 1908 and was succeeded by his grandson Himmat Singh, in preference to Himmat Singh's father Hira Singh, who was incapable of administering the Estate. Diwan Himmat Singh was invested with administrative powers on the 1st July 1918.

In 1919 Mardan Singh, youngest son of Mukund Singh, advanced a claim to a half share in the Jagir, which was rejected; he was granted an allowance of Rs. 15 per mensem. In 1920 claims by Balwant Singh and Kalian Singh, Mashdars of Bijna, to shares in the Jagir were referred to the arbitration of the Maharaja of Panna, who gave his award on the 26th June 1920. Under this Balwant Singh enjoys an annual income of approximately Rs. 3,000 Gajashahi as under:—

- (a) exclusive possession of Bagroni and its total income (approximately Rs. 1,200 Gajashahi).
- (b) balance (approximately Rs. 1,800 Gajashahi) in cash in lieu of land:

and Kalian Singh an annual allowance of Rs. 1,300 Gajashahi.

The area of Bijna is 8 square miles; the population, by the Census of 1921, 1,451; and the revenue about Rs. 8,000 a year.

Bijna was liable to pay nazarana in accordance with the terms of its Adoption Sanad up to 1911, when all Nazarana levies were abolished on the occasion of the Coronation Darbar.

(c) TORI FATEHPUR.

Har Prasad, Jagirdar of Tori Fatehpur, before his death in 1858, adopted Prithwi Singh from the Bijna branch of the family, and his succession was recognised by Government, the jagir being left under the management of the widow of Har Prasad during the minority.

In 1862 the Jagirdar received a Sanad of Adoption (see No. LV).

Prithwi Singh died on the 6th February 1880. The Government of India sanctioned the succession of his nephew Arjun Singh, born in 1870, who, in accordance with her husband's wishes, had been adopted by the widow.

In 1882 the Jagirdar ceded land for the Betwa Canal, receiving compensation for the area acquired.

On the 15th August 1895 the Dowager Thakurain, who had been managing the Jagir during Arjun Singh's minority, died; and the administration of the estate was made over to Arjun Singh in October 1895. The title of Rao Bahadur was conferred on him as a personal distinction on the 1st January 1907.

The area of the Jagir is about 36 square miles; the population, by the Census of 1921, 6,580; and the revenue about Rs. 30,000 a year.

Tori Fatehpur was liable to pay nazarana in accordance with the terms of its Adoption Sanad up to 1911, when all Nazarana levies were abolished on the occasion of the Coronation Darbar.

(d) BANKA PAHARI.

Diwan Isri Singh of Banka Pahari, so called from the title "Banka" belonging to the Jagirdar, was succeeded in 1847 by his eldest son Bije Bahadur.

In 1862 the Jagirdar received a Sanad of Adoption (see No. LV).

Bije Bahadur died in 1871, and was succeeded by his eldest son Banka Piyariju, who died in 1887 without male issue, and was succeeded by his sole surviving brother Sukh Sahib. He died in 1890, without male issue, and was succeeded by his cousin Meharban Singh. The Government of India decided that, for the purposes of the Bundela Sanad, the succession should be regarded as direct, and that therefore nazarana of only one-fourth of the net annual revenue was leviable. Having regard, moreover, to the impoverished circumstances of the estate, the Jagirdar was called upon to pay a portion only of the nazarana thus taken.

Meharban Singh died on the 4th June 1915 and was succeeded by his son Diwan Baldeo Singh.

The area of Banka Pahari is 5 square miles; the population, by the Census of 1921, 1,613; and the yearly revenue about Rs. 4,000.

Banka Pahari was liable to pay nazarana in accordance with the terms of its Adoption Sanad up to 1911, when all Nazarana levies were abolished on the occasion of the Coronation Darbar.

ENGAGEMENT concluded between the British Government and Nana Govin^D Rao,—1817.

Whereas by a Treaty concluded between the British Government and His Highness the Peishwa, under date the 13th June 1817, corresponding with the 14th Assar 1874 Sumbut, the rights of supremacy possessed by His Highness over Nana Govind Rao, and the lands in the Nana's immediate occupation, have been transferred to the British Government; and Whereas the British Government has consented on certain considerations to relinquish the tribute and military service which by virtue of that transfer it had acquired a right to demand from the Nana, and to constitute the Nana the hereditary ruler of the lands at present in his actual possession: The following Articles have accordingly been concluded by mutual consent between the British Government and the said Nana Govind Rao:

ARTICLE 1.

All the Articles of the Engagement contracted with Nana Govind Rao by Colonel John Baillie on the part of the British Government, under date the 3rd day of October 1806, corresponding with the 10th of Shabun 1221 Hijree, and the 11th of Kooar Sood 1863 Sumbut, shall remain in full force, excepting in as far as they are not altered by this Treaty.

ARTICLE 2.

The British Government hereby relinquishes for ever its right to tribute and military service from Nana Govind Rao, his heirs and successors. The British Government moreover acknowledges and hereby constitutes Nana Govind Rao, his heirs and successors, the hereditary rulers of the territory at present in the Nana's actual possession.

ARTICLE 3.

The British Government further engages to protect the aforesaid possessions of the Nana from the aggressions of any foreign power, and it is accordingly hereby agreed between the contracting parties that whenever the Nana shall have reason to apprehend a design on the part of any power to invade his territories, whether in consequence of any disputed claim or on any other ground, he shall report the circumstances of the case to the British Government, which will interpose its mediation for the adjustment of such disputed claim; the Nana, relying on the justice and equity of the British Government, agrees implicitly to abide by its award. If the apprehended aggression be referable to any other cause, the British Government will endeavour by representation and remonstrance to avert the design, and if, notwithstanding the Nana's acquiescence in the award of the British Government, the other party shall persist in its hostile designs, and the endeavours of the British Government shall fail of success, such measures will be adopted for the protection of the Nana's territories as the circumstances of the case may appear to require.

ARTICLE 4.

Nana Govind Rao hereby cedes to the British Government in perpetual sovereignty the whole of the lands of the ilakah of Kundah appertaining to the pergunnah of Mohabuh, circumscribed by the territories of the British Government, and also certain villages on the banks of the River Jumna appertaining to the pergunnah of Choorke, and intermixed with the Honorable Company's lands of Bhudaick and Raypore, including mal, sayer, charity, and rent-free lands of every description, agreeably to a Schedule subjoined to the Treaty; the Nana accordingly engages that the aforesaid lands shall be given up to the Officers of the British Government immediately on demand. But with a view to the satisfaction of certain claims upon the Nana, for which some of these lands are pledged, the British Government hereby agrees to grant to the Nana the revenue of those lands to be paid in cash up to the end of Assar next, corresponding with July 1818; the current revenue, after deducting the expense of collection, the outstanding balances, and the advances of tuccavie which may be justly demandable up to the end of Assar next, according to the Regulations of the British Government, shall accordingly be collected by the British Revenue Officers and paid to the Nana monthly.

ARTICLE 5.

If at any time the Nana have any cause of complaint against any of the Rajahs or Chiefs allied to the British Government, the Nana engages to refer the case to the arbitration and decision of that Government, and to abide implicitly by its award, and on no account to commit aggressions against the other party, or to employ his own force for the satisfaction of such claim or the redress of the grievance of which he may complain.

ARTICLE 6.

Nana Govind Rao hereby engages to abstain from corresponding with foreign powers, excepting with the privity and consent of the British Government.

ARTICLE 7

With a view to facilitate the adjustment of boundary disputes between the subjects of the Nana and that of the British Government, and to avoid the delay of a reference to the Nana, the Nana hereby engages to require all his Aumils and other Officers on the frontier to comply immediately with any orders they may receive from the Superintendent of Political Affairs, for causing the attendance of parties and witnesses, or for any other purpose connected with the adjustment of boundary disputes without waiting the result of a reference to him. The Nana further agrees to give ready and due attention to all suggestions from the Superintendent respecting the punishment of any of his subjects who may be convicted before the Superintendent of violence and aggression towards the British subjects. With a further view to avoid disputes respecting the new boundaries which will be formed between the lands now ceded by the Nana and those to which they are contiguous, it is hereby agreed that actual possession at the date of this Treaty shall be held to be the criterion for the settlement of all disputes which may arise respecting the aforesaid boundary, and that no retrospective claim founded on former possession shall be sustained on either side.

ARTICLE 8.

The British Government hereby engages to contract no engagements with Rao Benaick Rao, the manager of Saugor, or with the Bheik Sahiba, detrimental to the claims and rights of the Nana in the country of Saugor. The British Government, moreover, offers hereafter to interpose its good offices with a view to bring about a satisfactory adjustment of the difference between Nana Govind Rao and the manager of the country of Saugor.

ARTICLE 9.

Whenever the British Government may have occasion to send its troops through the territory of Nana Govind Rao, or to station a British force within his territories, it shall be competent to the British Government so to detach or station its troops, and the Nana shall give his consent accordingly. The Commander of the British troops which may thus eventually pass through or per-the 11th of Kooar Sood 1863 Sumbut, shall remain in full force, excepting in as far as they are not altered by this Treaty.

ARTICLE 2.

The British Government hereby relinquishes for ever its right to tribute and military service from Nana Govind Rao, his heirs and successors. The British Government moreover acknowledges and hereby constitutes Nana Govind Rao, his heirs and successors, the hereditary rulers of the territory at present in the Nana's actual possession.

ARTICLE 3.

The British Government further engages to protect the aforesaid possessions of the Nana from the aggressions of any foreign power, and it is accordingly hereby agreed between the contracting parties that whenever the Nana shall have reason to apprehend a design on the part of any power to invade his territories, whether in consequence of any disputed claim or on any other ground, he shall report the circumstances of the case to the British Government, which will interpose its mediation for the adjustment of such disputed claim; the Nana, relying on the justice and equity of the British Government, agrees implicitly to abide by its award. If the apprehended aggression be referable to any other cause, the British Government will endeavour by representation and remonstrance to avert the design, and if, notwithstanding the Nana's acquiescence in the award of the British Government, the other party shall persist in its hostile designs, and the endeavours of the British Government shall fail of success, such measures will be adopted for the protection of the Nana's territories as the circumstances of the case may appear to require.

ARTICLE 4.

Nana Govind Rao hereby cedes to the British Government in perpetual sovereignty the whole of the lands of the ilakah of Kundah appertaining to the pergunnah of Mohabuh, circumscribed by the territories of the British Government, and also certain villages on the banks of the River Jumna appertaining to the pergunnah of Choorke, and intermixed with the Honorable Company's lands of Bhudaick and Raypore, including mal, sayer, charity, and rent-free lands of every description, agreeably to a Schedule subjoined to the Treaty; the Nana accordingly engages that the aforesaid lands shall be given up to the Officers of the British Government immediately on demand. But with a view to the satisfaction of certain claims upon the Nana, for which some of these lands are pledged, the British Government hereby agrees to grant to the Nana the revenue of those lands to be paid in cash up to the end of Assar next, corresponding with July 1818; the current revenue, after deducting the expense of collection, the outstanding balances, and the advances of tuccavie which may be justly demandable up to the end of Assar next, according to the Regulations of the British Government, shall accordingly be collected by the British Revenue Officers and paid to the Nana monthly.

Whereas a firm Treaty of Friendship and Alliance subsists between the British Government and His Highness the Peishwa, and Sheo Rao Bhao, Soobadar of Jhansie, is a tributary of His Highness the Peishwa; and Whereas Sheo Rao Bhao, entertaining a just sense of the obligations imposed upon him by the said Treaty of Friendship and Alliance between the British Government and His Highness the Peishwa, shortly after the arrival of a detachment of the British army in Bundelcund, transmitted to His Excellency General Lake, Commander-in-Chief, etc., etc., through Captain John Baillie, Political Agent on the part of His Excellency in Bundelcund, a Wajib-ool-Urz or Paper of Requests, expressive of his submission and attachment to the views and interests of the British Government, and containing seven distinct Articles or requests, all which have been acceded to by His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief; and Whereas certain requests and agreements on the part of Sheo Rao Bhao were not included in the said Wajib-ool-Urz, and are now necessary to be added:

The following Articles are now agreed on for the purpose of affording additional security and confidence to Sheo Rao Bhao, and of constituting an additional pledge of his fidelity and attachment to the British Government:—

ARTICLE 1.

The Bhao, professing his entire submission and sincere attachment to the British Government and to His Highness the Peishwa, hereby engages to consider the friends of both Governments as his friends, and their enemies as his enemies, that is to say, he promises not to molest any Chief or State who shall be obedient to the British Government and to His Highness the Peishwa; and considering all such as may be rebellious or disaffected to these Governments as his enemies, he engages to give no protection in his country to such persons or their families, to hold no intercourse or correspondence of any nature with them, and to use every means in his power to seize and deliver them over to the Government against which they may offend.

ARTICLE 2.

If at any time a dispute or difference arise between the Bhao and any neighbouring State or Chieftain professing obedience to the British Government, the Bhao engages to communicate the grounds of such dispute or difference to the British Government, that they may have an opportunity of investigating the matter in dispute and of adjusting it to the mutual satisfaction of the parties, or of punishing the party who shall be refractory.

ARTICLE 3.

Whenever a detachment of the British forces shall be employed in punishing the disaffected in the countries contiguous to the possessions of Sheo Rao Bhao, the Bhao engages upon every such occasion to join the British forces with his army and to assist in the accomplishment of their views; and if at any time a detachment of the British force shall march into the Bhao's country for the purpose of quelling disturbances there, the whole expense of such detachment shall be defrayed by the Bhao. On the other hand, if the assistance of the Bhao's troops be demanded at any time for the purpose of quelling disturbances in the British territory, the expenses of such troops shall be borne by the British Government.

ARTICLE 4.

The Bhao is in reality the Commander of his own troops; but it is hereby agreed that on every occasion when they may be aeting with the British forces, the general command of the whole shall be vested in the Commanding Officer of the British troops, and in the event of peace being concluded, a due attention shall be paid to the interest of the Bhao.

ARTICLE 5.

Sheo Rao Bhao engages never to take or retain in his service any British subject or Enropean of any nation or description without the consent of the British Government.

ARTICLE 6.

Whatever tribute has been hitherto paid to His Highness the Peishwa by the Bhao shall be continued to be paid to His Highness. The British Government do not demand any tribute for themselves.

ARTICLE 7.

If Rajah Ambagie Inglia at any time molest the possessions of the Bhao, the British Government shall interfere to prevent him.

ARTICLE 8.

Accusations of disaffection or disobedience, if adduced by any person against the Bhao, shall not be attended to by the British Government unless the truth of them be proved.

ARTICLE 9.

Sheo Rao Bhao possesses a house in the city of Benares; if any of the children, brothers, or other relations of the Bhao hereafter reside in that city, they shall enjoy the protection of the British Government, and shall not suffer any molestation.

This Agreement, containing nine Articles, signed and sealed by Captain John Baillie, Political Agent, on the part of His Excellency General Lake, Commander-in-Chief, and by Sheo Rao Bhao, Soobadar of Jhansie, in Camp at Kotra, on the 6th day of February 1804, answering to the 23rd day of Shuwaul 1218 Hijery, and 10th day of Phagoon Boodee 1860 Sumbut, is delivered to Sheo Rao Bhao, and another of the same date, tenor, and contents, signed and sealed by the parties on the same day, is delivered to Captain John Baillie. Whenever the ratification of this Agreement, under the seal and signature of His Excellency General Lake, or of His Excellency the Most Noble the Governor-General in Council, shall be delivered to Sheo Rao Bhao, the Bhao engages to return the Agreement.

Translation of a Wajib-ool-Urz presented on the part of the Rajah of Jhansie.
—18th November 1803.

Seurao Bhao, Chief of Jhansie and other places, submits the following requests in separate Articles, and hopes that they may be granted by the British Government:—

1st.—The degree of rank and respectability which I have hitherto enjoyed under His Highness the Peishwa, shall be continued and increased under the British Government.

2nd.—The country and forts which I at present hold under the authority of His Highness the Peishwa shall remain in my possession, and the revenue which I have hitherto paid to the Peishwa shall hereafter be paid into the Company's treasury.

3rd.—As the English are now employed in the conquest of the territories and forts of Dowlut Rao Scindiah and Holkar, let a battalion or two with an Officer of rank be sent here, and I shall join and assist them in conquering the countries which are adjacent to my own.

4th.—If the Honorable Company be desirous of possessing my country and fort, they are masters and every way powerful, and I am ready to submit; but as the British Nation and His Highness the Peishwa are at peace, and as a Treaty exists between them, let an order of His Highness be produced, that I may perform the duty of allegiance in obeying that order.

5th.—If the Peishwa at any future period make over my country to the Company, and it becomes a part of the British possessions, let a Jaidad be assigned to me for the support of my cavalry and infantry, and for the maintenance of myself and family in perpetuity.

6th.—As the Rajahs of Candahar, Dutteea, Chundery and other Chiefs in the neighbourhood are ready to submit to and become the servants of the British Government, let the possessions of these Chiefs be guaranteed, and the revenue which they have paid to the Peishwa, shall be paid into the British treasury.

7th.—Let every arrangement with me be concluded through the medium of Rajah Himmut Bahadoor.

Signed and sealed under the authority of Seurao Bhao by his vakeel Izzul Khan.

ARTICLE 4.

In consideration of the guarantee and protection afforded by the two foregoing Articles to Row Ramehund, the Chief of Jhansie, that Chief hereby binds himself to employ his troops, at his own expense, whenever required to do so, in co-operation with those of the British Government, on all occasions in which the interests of the two Governments may be mutually concerned. 2nd.—The Chief is to fulfil all the engagements which have been entered into with the landholders for the remaining three years of the quinquennial settlement, and to submit all references arising out of this subject to the decision of the Agent Governor-General in Bundelcund, or any Officer who may be appointed for the purpose by Government.

8th.—That the Chief will assign lands for a military cantonment in any part of his territories which the Government may select for the purpose; but the Officer Commanding the troops in such cantonments is not to interfere with the civil administration of the Government, or permit the troops to oppress the subjects of the Jhansie State. No. XX.

AGREEMENT between the British Government and the Datia * State regarding jurisdiction and other matters connected with the working of the Betwa Canal,—1888.

- 1. Subject to any modifications or alterations which may hereafter appear necessary, His Highness the Maharajah of Datia will retain full jurisdiction on those portions of the Betwa canal which pass through the Datia State; provided that the charge and custody of the canal, its banks and sluices, as well as all arrangements for regulating the issue of water, will rest exclusively with the British canal officers.
- 2. In order to facilitate communication with British canal officers, the Datia State will appoint a responsible official to be called "the Canal Motamid," whose name will be reported to the Executive Engineer of the British Government for the canal and the Political Agent in Bundelcund; and this Motamid will be the medium of communication between the British Government and the Datia Darbar in all matters relating to the working of the canal.
- 3. The Maharaja hereby declares clauses 1, 2, 3, 5, 10 and 11 of section 70 of the Act of the Governor-General in Council, No. VIII of 1873, to be in force as law in the Datia State; and His Highness engages to deal expeditiously and in the manner contemplated by the aforesaid section with all complaints made by British canal officers in regard to the working of the canal in Datia territory.

- 4. Reports or complaints will ordinarily be made by or through the Executive Engineer to the Canal Motamid; but in all urgent cases, such as serious damage to the canal and consequent waste or apprehension of waste of water, chowkidars will report direct to the Motamid, who will invariably give a written receipt for every complaint so made.
- 5. The Datia Darbar will give the Executive Engineer due notice of the date, time, and place fixed for the trial of any offence under Section 70 of the abovementioned Act, VIII of 1873, or of any criminal case to which a canal subordinate may be a party; and the Executive Engineer shall be at liberty to depute an officer not below the rank of a Sub-Overseer to watch the proceedings in the Darbar's Court.
- 6. The Datia Darbar will report monthly to the Political Agent in Bundelcund all complaints made during the month by British canal officers, and the manner in which such cases may have been disposed of.
- 7. (a) Any canal officer who is accused of having committed in Datia territory a heinous offence, such as murder, culpable homicide not amounting to murder, and dakaiti, may be arrested by the Maharaja's authorities.
- (b) Information of every such arrest shall be given by the Darbar at once to the nearest British canal officer.
- (c) In all other cases in which the arrest of a canal officer is desired, a warrant of arrest will be sent by the Darbar for execution through the Sub-Overseer if the offender is a chowkidar, and to the Sub-Divisional Officer if the offender is of a higher grade.
- (d) Police Officers and Magistrates of the Darbar may exercise, with respect to European British subjects, in Datia territory, the same powers as may be exercised with respect to European British subjects by Police Officers and by Magistrates who are not Justices of the Peace, respectively, in places in British India beyond the limits of the Presidency towns.
- 8. (a) The Datia State will be responsible to the British Government for all wilful damage to the canal, its sluices or banks, and for theft of water within Datia territory; but it will be open to the Darbar, when required by the Political Agent, to show cause why it should not be called upon to compensate the Canal Department for any such injury or theft of water.
- (b) In such cases the award of the Political Agent as to the liability of the Datia State to pay compensation and as to the amount payable shall be binding on the Darbar, subject to an appeal to the Agent to the Governor-General, whose decision shall be final.
- 9. The British Government may, from time to time, after hearing any representations which the Datia State may wish to make, frame rules regulating the distribution of water, the collection of the water-rate, and any other matters which further experience in the working of the Betwa canal may show to be necessary.

This agreement was executed at on the day of , one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight.

No. XXII.

Engagement concluded between the British Government and Rajah Runjeet Singh of Sumptur, dated 12th November 1817.

Whereas Rajah Runjeet Singh, Rajah of Sumptur, with a view to obtain the powerful protection of the British Government, presented on the 22nd of February 1805, corresponding with the 3rd of Phagoon 1216 Fuslee, to Colonel John Baillie, then Agent to the Governor-General in the Province of Bundelkhund, a Wajib-ool-Urz, or Paper of Requests, containing six distinct Articles, all of which were either complied with or answered; and Whereas circumstances occurred some time afterwards to prevent that preliminary arrangement from terminating in a definitive Treaty between the Honorable Company and the Rajah Runjeet Singh; and Whereas the Rajah having since repeatedly and earnestly solicited to be placed under the protection of the British Government, and having on several occasions manifested his loyalty and attachment to it, both by professions and acts, the British Government, relying on the continuance of those sentiments, and on the Rajah's strict adherence to whatever engagements he may form on the basis of a more intimate union of his interests with those of the Honorable Company, has now acceded to the Rajah's request, and the following Articles of a Treaty of Alliance are accordingly contracted between the British Government and Rajah Runjeet Singh, his heirs and successors:-

ARTICLE 1.

Rajah Runjeet Singh, Rajah of Sumptur, being hereby admitted among the allies of the British Government, engages to consider the friends of that Government as his friends, and its enemies as his enemies. He further engages to give no molestation to any Chief or State in amity with the British Government, but considering all persons who may be disaffected to that Government as his own enemies, he promises to afford no protection to them or their families in his country, to hold no intercourse with them whatever, and to use every means in his power to seize and deliver them up to the Officers of the British Government.

ARTICLE 2.

The British Government, with a view to confirm the attachment and fidelity of the Government of Sumptur, hereby guarantees to Rajah Runjeet Singh, his heirs and successors, the territory actually possessed by him at the period of the establishment of the British Government in Bundelkhund, and now in his occupation, and the British Government hereby agrees to protect and defend the same from the aggressions of any foreign power.

ARTICLE 3.

The British Government having by the terms of the foregoing Article engaged to protect the Rajah of Sumptur from the aggressions of any foreign power, it is hereby agreed between the contracting parties, that whenever the Rajah shall have reason to apprehend a design on the part of any foreign power to invade his territories, whether in consequence of any disputed claim or on any other ground, he shall report the circumstances of the case to the British Government, which will interpose its mediation for the adjustment of such disputed claim, and the Rajah, relying on the justice and equity of the British Government, agrees implicitly to abide by its award. If the apprehended aggression shall be referable to any other cause, the British Government will endeavour by representation and remonstrance to avert the design, and if, notwithstanding the Rajah's acquiescence in the award of the British Government, the other power shall persist in its hostile designs, and the endeavors of the British Government should fail of success, such measures will be adopted for the protection of the Rajah's territories as the circumstances of the case may appear to require.

ARTICLE 4.

In consideration of the guarantee and protection extended by the two foregoing Articles to the Rajah of Sumptur, the Rajah hereby binds himself at his own expense to employ his troops whenever required to do so, in co-operation with those of the British Government on all occasions in which the interests of the two Governments may be mutually concerned. On all such occasions the Sumptur troops shall act under the orders and control of the Commanding Officer of the British troops.

ARTICLE 5.

If at any time the Rajah of Sumptur shall have any claim or cause of complaint against any of the Rajahs or Chiefs allied to or dependant on the British Government, the Rajah engages to refer the case to the arbitration and decision of that Government, and to abide by its award, and on no account to commit aggression against the other party, or to employ his own force for the satisfaction of such claim, or for the redress of the grievance of which he may complain. On the other hand, the British Government engages to withhold its allies or dependants from committing any aggression against the Rajah of Sumptur, and to arbitrate any demand they may have upon the Rajah of Sumptur, according to the strict principles of justice, the Rajah on his part agreeing implicitly to abide by its award.

ARTICLE 6.

The Rajah of Sumptur engages at all times to employ his utmost exertions in defending the roads and passes of his country against any enemies or predatory bodies who may attempt to penetrate through it into the territories of the Honorable Company.

ARTICLE 7.

Whenever the British Government may have occasion to send its troops through the dominions of the Rajah of Sumptur, or to station a British force within his territories, it shall be competent to the British Government so to detach or station its troops, and the Rajah of Sumptur shall give his consent accordingly. The Commander of the British troops which shall thus eventually pass through or permanently occupy a position within the Rajah's territories, shall not in any manner interfere in the internal concerns of the Rajah's Government.

Whatever materials or supplies may be required for the use of the British troops during their continuance in the Rajah's territories, shall be readily furnished by the Rajah's Officers and subjects, and shall be paid for at the price current of the bazar.

ARTICLE 8.

The Rajah engages never to entertain in his service any British subject or European of any nation or description whatever, without the consent of the British Government.

ARTICLE 9.

The Rajah of Sumptur hereby binds himself to maintain no correspondence with Foreign States without the privity and consent of the British Government.

ARTICLE 10.

The Rajah engages to give no asylum to criminals nor to defaulters of the British Government who may abscond and take refuge within his territory; and should the Officers of the British Government be sent in pursuit of such criminals and defaulters, the Rajah further engages to afford such Officers every assistance in his power in apprehending them.

ARTICLE 11.

This Treaty, consisting of eleven Articles, having this day been concluded between the British Government and Rajah Runjeet Singh, the Rajah of Sumptur, through the agency of John Wauchope, Esquire, in virtue of powers delegated to him by the Most Noble the Governor-General on the one part, and Dureao Singh, vakeel of the said Rajah, on the other, Mr. Wauchope and the vakeel have signed and sealed two copies of the Treaty in English, Persian, and Hindee, one of which, after being ratified by the seal and signature of the Most Noble the Marquis of Hastings, Governor-General, will be delivered to-morrow to the said vakeel, and the said vakeel having obtained the ratification of the Rajah to the other copy, engages to deliver it within the same time to Mr. Wauchope.

Signed, scaled, and exchanged at Terait, on the 12th day of November 1817, corresponding with 18th Kartick 1874 Sumbut, and second of Mohurrum 1233 Higeree.

This Treaty was ratified by His Excellency the Governor-General, in Camp, near Talgong, on the 13th day of November 1817.

SAMTHAR SALT AGREEMENT,-1879.

Whereas it has been represented to me by Sir Henry Daly, K.C.B., Agent to the Governor-General for the States of Central India, that the British Government have offered to allow me and my successors annually free of cost and duty at the Sambhur works five hundred (500) maunds of salt for consumption in my State (which salt shall not be re-exported from the Sumthur State), I do hereby covenant that, from a date to be fixed by the British Government.

I will not permit the manufacture of any salt in my State except at saltpetre works at present existing, nor the import into and passage through my State of any salt other than salt upon which duty has been levied by the British Government and the said 500 maunds of salt.

I will not permit any new saltpetre works to be opened in my State, nor any extension of those now existing, nor will I allow the outturn of salt from these works to exceed an annual limit of 1,500 maunds of edible salt, in accordance with the list attached to the agreement. I will furnish the British Government annually with a statement showing the quantity of edible salt passing out of each of these works.

Further, I will not permit any toll or tax whatever to be levied in my State on salt on which duty has been levied by the British Government.

If any stocks of salt other than salt manufactured in my State be found to exist within the territories of such State on the said date, I agree, if so requested by the British Government, to take possession of such stocks and to give the owners thereof the option of either transferring the salt to British Government at such equitable valuation I may fix in concurrence with the Political Agent, or of paying to the British Government such duty of two rupees eight annas per maund on such salt as the Governor-General in Council may fix. In the event of the owners accepting the latter alternative, they shall be allowed to retain the salt on which the said duty may have been paid, but not otherwise.

Lastly, the export of all intoxicating drugs, preparations and spirits (such as bhang, ganja and opium) by all routes and in all directions hereafter barred by the Inland Custom line shall be prohibited.

Obligation of Maharaja Kishore Sing, signed and sealed by his Minister Raj Dhur Guj Sing, at Modha, the 4th February 1807.

Whereas, by the Treaty of Bassein, the country of Dursa, Noor, and Adlpar, originally in the possession of Sreemmut Pundit Purdhan Sewage Bagee Rao Peishwa Behadur, was formerly ceded to the Honorable the East India Company; and Whereas by a subsequent agreement between the two States, this country was afterwards restored to the Peishwa, and in exchange for it and for certain other eonsiderations which are contained in the agreement in question, the province of Bundelennd, yielding a revenue of thirty-six lakhs and sixteen thousand Rupces, was eeded in perpetual sovereignty by His Highness the Peishwa to the Honorable the East India Company, and annexed to their actual possessions; and Whereas a British force having entered the province, for the purpose of settling the country and punishing the refractory, all the Rajahs of this province and its vicinity, on hearing the fame of the instice, benevolence and good faith which have ever regulated the conduct of the British Government, placed themselves under its protection, and, becoming respectively the objects of its bounty and liberality, have been reinstated and confirmed in their original possessions, which they now enjoy in security and comfort; and Whereas I, Maha Rajah Kishore Sing Behadur, descended from the Inte Maharaja Hurdie Sah, and possessed of claims in common with the other Rajahs of this province, have with sineere professions of attachment to the British Government deputed my Minister Raj Dhur Guj Sing to solieit the favor and kindness of the Government, and accordingly with a view to the promotion of the welfare of the inhabitants of this province, a Sunnud for certain mehals and villages above the Ghats, which by the Treaty of Bassein are immediately dependent on the British Government, has been conferred upon me: Therefore, and in order to confirm my obedience and attachment to the British Government, I have prepared and delivered this obligation containing the following Articles, under my own scal and signature and under the seal and signature of my Minister Raj Dhur Guj Sing, and I hereby declare that I never will swerve from those Articles in any instance whatever:

ARTICLE 1.

I hereby bind myself never to aid nor abet any marauders either in or out of the province of Bundeleund; never to harbour them in my possessions nor permit their families to reside in the territory subject to my authority; and also to abstain from all correspondence and communication with them; and I further bind myself never to engage in hostility with any of the adherents or dependants of the British Government, but always to be obedient and submissive to it.

ARTICLE 2.

I engage to guard the passes through the Ghats which are subject to my authority, in such a manner as to prevent all marauders and plunderers from ascending or descending the Ghats through those passes, and to secure the territory of the British Government from incursions through any of the said passes.

ARTICLE 3.

Whenever the British troops shall have occasion to ascend the Ghats through any of the passes subject to my authority, I engage not only not to obstruct nor impede their progress, but to depute respectable and intelligent persons to conduct them by the most convenient route.

ARTICLE 4.

Whereas the British Government, from motives of justice and equity, have granted to me a Sunnud for a considerable portion of territory above the Ghats, and whereas many of the villages contained in that ferritory were formerly made over in malgoozaree by my ancestors and predecessors to certain persons who were faithful and obedient, and many of those pergunnahs and villages have of late years been usurped by refractory and turbulent persons who have revolted from my authority; therefore I hereby solemnly pledge myself to be responsible for any commotions or disturbances which shall be excited by those persons within the British territory.

ARTICLE 5.

If any subject of the British Government abscond and take refuge in any of the villages subject to my authority, I agree to seize such person and to deliver him up to the Officers of the British Government immediately on his being demanded.

ARTICLE 6.

I will not permit thickes or robbers to reside in any of my villages, and if the property of merchants or travellers be stolen or robbed in any village under my authority, I agree to make the zemindars of such village responsible either for the restitution of the stolen property, or for the delivery of the offender to the British Government; and if any felon or murderer, or any person amenable to the British laws for crimes committed in the British territory, shall take refuge in any of my villages, I engage to deliver him over to the Officers of the British Government.

ARTICLE 7.

One of my confidential servants shall always be in attendance on the principal Officer of the Government in this province, for the purpose of executing his orders.

I, Raj Dhur Guj Sing, the Minister of Maharajah Kishore Sing Behadur, having as agent for the Maharajah affixed my seal and signature to this obligation and entered it among the records of the British Government, do hereby promise strictly to observe the above Articles, and never to evade nor neglect the performance of any of the conditions contained in them; and, after repairing to the presence of the Maharajah, I engage to procure and to place among the records of Government, an Ikrarnamah comprising the above Articles, signed and sealed by the Maharajah and signed and sealed by myself; after which I shall receive back this obligation.

Translation of a Sunnud granted to Maharajah Kishore Sing in 1807.

Be it known to all choudries, kanoongoes, zemindars, malgoozars, and talookdars of that portion of Bundelcund above the Ghats, which was formerly in the possession of Herdee Sah; that Whereas the primary objects of the British Government are the amelioration of the condition of their subjects, and the adjustment of the rights of all just claimants: and Whereas, actuated by this principle, the Hon'ble the East India Company, from motives of liberality, have not thought proper to avail themselves of their title to the possession of the whole of Bundelcund which, with an annual revenue of thirty-six lacs and sixteen thousand Rupces, was by an agreement between the two States ceded to the British Government by His Highness the Peishwa; but contenting themselves with that territory which is now in their actual possession, they have been pleased to apportion the remaining territory to various Chieftains of this province, possessing just claims, and to certain persons who were in the possession of lands before the introduction of the British authority into this province, and who since the establishment have uniformly professed and evinced their attachment and fidelity to it, with this view that the whole of the inhabitants of this province, both high and low, may pass their days in security and happiness under the benign protection of the British Government; and Whereas Maharajah Kishore Sing, the grandson of the late Maharajah Herdee Sah, possessing claims in common with the other Rajahs of this province, and sincerely professing attachment to the British Government, has become obedient and submissive to it, and has deputed his Minister, Raj Dhur Guga Sing, to solicit the favor and kindness of the Government: Therefore the mehals, villages, and diamond mines specified underneath, and situated above the Ghats, are hereby granted and assigned to the Maharajah by the British Government.

It is necessary that the Maharajah, entertaining a due sense of this extensive grant, do strictly perform the conditions of his engagement, in which case he shall never be molested nor opposed by the British Government, but shall continue undisturbed in the enjoyment of his present possession.

Ratified by the Governor-General in Council on 14th May 1807.

Answer.

It is not the usage for the Rulers of the British Government to act upon the accusation of any one without investigation.

Answer.

So long as you shall continue faithful and submissive, every degree of favorable consideration shall be shown to you.

Answer.

Whereas all the disputes that heretofore existed between the several Rajahs and Chiefs of this province, have been adjusted by the decision of the British Government:-This being the case, it is to be expected that no further disturbances will arise between the Chiefs in allegiance to that Government. accidentally from any unforeseen cause any dispute should arise between you and any other Chief, you will submit the same to the consideration of the British Government, which will decide, finally, on the merits of the ease. And. whereas your possessions are included in the province of Bundeleund, it is improbable that any foreign force shall attack them: but should this unexpeeted event happen, your possession will be protected by the British Government.

TRANSLATION of an IKRARNAMAH presented by the RAJAH KISHORE SING BAHA-DUR, the RAJAH of PUNNAH,—1811.

Whereas since the first annexation of the province of Bundelcund to the dominions of the British Government, I, Rajah Kishore Sing Bahadur (the contracting party), and proprietor of the share of Herdee Sah (who was the Chief of all the Rajahs of Bundeleund), having acknowledged my allegiance and submission and remained obedient to the British Government, and never in any instance deviated from the obedience and loyalty due from a good subject, but during the period of the agency of Captain Baillie, by reason of a combination of accidental circumstances, I was prevented from appearing in the above Officer's presence, I however deputed to the above gentleman Raj Dhur Guga Sing Bahadur on my part, and applied for a Sunnud from the British Government: accordingly, the said Raj Dhur Guga Sing Bahadur above-mentioned delivered in an Ikrarnamah (or obligation of allegiance) under my seal and signature and received a Sunnud for several villages. Many villages that were then in the hands of usurpers and oppressors were not inserted therein, and to obtain possession of even those villages which were included in the above Sunnud from Lutehmun Dowah and other unjust possessors, I was necessitated to wage war, and in eonsequence of my own want of power, and receiving no aid from the British Government, I was unable to obtain possession of the places in question. After the arrival of Mr. John Richardson, I waited upon that gentleman, and according to the orders of the Right Hon'ble the Governor-General in Council, by the aid of a British force, I obtained possession of the villages included in the Sunnud granted by the British Government, as well as those villages which were in the possession of usurpers and unjust claimants. At this period, and with a view to confirming my obedience and attachment to the British Government, I have prepared, under my seal and signature, and hereby present, the Ikrarnamah containing eleven distinct Articles, to Mr. John Richardson, Agent to the Governor-General in Bundelcund, and required a Sunnud for the villages and lands now in my possession, and I therefore hereby declare and promise, that I will scrupulously observe all the Articles contained in this Ikrarnamah, and never evade or infringe any one of them.

ARTICLE 1.

I hereby promise and bind myself on no occasion to unite with external or internal enemies of the Hon'ble Company in Bundeleund, and to be ever obedient and submissive to the will and commands of the British Government in all things.

ARTICLE 2.

If any one of my children, brothers, or relations, excite sedition or disturbance in the British territories or possessions, or the territories or possessions of any of the Chiefs in allegiance to the British Government, I engage to do everything in my power to prevent and to restrain them; and in the case of their persisting in such conduct, I engage to unite my force with the British troops in the punishment and suppression of such persons.

ARTICLE 3.

If any of the subjects of the British Government shall fly, and take refuge in my territories, on application from the Officers of the British Government, I will deliver them up to the British Government.

ARTICLE 4.

I further engage that I will never harbour or give protection in my country to persons accused or suspected of robbery or theft; that if a robbery be committed, or the property of merchants or travellers be stolen in any of the villages subject to my authority, I will render the inhabitants of that village responsible for the restitution, or value of the property stolen or robbed, or for the seizure and delivery of the thieves or robbers; and, in general, that murderers and all other persons amenable to the criminal jurisdiction of the British Government for crimes committed in the British possessions, who may take refuge in my districts, shall be immediately seized and delivered over to the British authority in Bundeleund.

ARTICLE 5.

If any of the surrounding Chiefs rebel against the British authority, although they be my near relations, I engage to abstain from every manner of friendly intercourse with such Chiefs, and not to harbour or give protection in my country to them or any of their relations.

ARTICLE 6.

I engage not to enter into quarrels or disputes with any Chief who is obedient or submissive to the British Government, and if at any time a quarrel or dispute arise between me and any of the other dependants of the British Government, in either case I promise to submit the cause of such dispute for the decision of the British Government.

ARTICLE 7.

I engage to guard all the passes through the Ghâts under my authority, so as to prevent all marauders, plunderers, and ill-disposed persons, from ascending or descending the Ghâts, or from entering the British territories through any of those passes; and if any neighbouring Chief or Leader should meditate an incursion into the British territory through my possessions, or those of the Chief's in allegiance thereto, I engage to furnish the Officers of the British Government with information of the circumstance before his approach to the neighbourhood of my territory, and to exert my utmost efforts to obstruct his progress.

ARTICLE 8.

Whenever the British troops shall have occasion to ascend the Ghâts through any of the passes subject to my authority, I agree not only not to obstruct or impede their progress, but to depute respectable and intelligent persons to conduct them by the most convenient route, and to furnish them with the necessary supplies so long as they remain within or in the vicinity of my possessions.

ARTICLE 9.

Whereas Gopaul Sing and Rao Himmut Sing of Murreadah, and Zalim Sing of Burdwaho, and Puddum Sing of Thingah, and Gotee Jumadar, and Manickjee of Mahut Gowha, have rebelled against the British Government and are guilty of marauding and plundering in the territories of that Government, I hereby declare that I will never have any intercourse with the above-mentioned rebels; but, on the contrary, whenever I shall hear of any of their joint or separate depredations in the territories of the British Government or any of its dependants, I engage to attack the aggressor or aggressors, and to the utmost of my power punish them, and in the event of any of them being seized, I engage to deliver them up to the British Government.

ARTICLE 10.

Whereas between me and the Rajahs and Chiefs of Bundelcund there existed many disputed claims concerning many villages, which disputes have been adjusted and settled by the decision of the British Government; and as now there is no disputed point or cause of difference remaining, I hereby therefore declare and promise, that hereafter I will not dispute or quarrel with any Rajah or Chief on account of any village or lands. If any Rajah or Chief shall dispute or quarrel with me on account of any village or lands claimed, I engage to submit the same to the British Government, and to abide by its decision, and not to dispute or quarrel about the point myself.

ARTICLE 11.

I engage that one of my confidential servants shall always be in attendance as a vakeel on the Officer of the British Government in this province for the purpose of executing his orders, and in the event of such vakeel being from any reason disapproved of by the said Officer, I agree immediately to appoint another in his stead.

Translation of a Sunnud granted to the Rajah Kishore Sing Bahadur, Rajah of Punnah, in 1811.

Be it known to the chowdries, canoongoes, etc., of the pergunnah of Khuttolah and the pergunnah of Powey, etc., in the province of Bundelcund, that Whereas the Maharajah Kishore Sing Bahadur, one of the ancient and hereditary Chieftains of Bundelcund, the heir and proprietor of the share of Herdee Sah (who was the Chief of the Rajahs of Bundelcund) from the period of the annexation of the province of Bundelcund to the dominions of the British Government, has invariably observed a friendly and obedient conduct, and in no instance deviated from the loyalty or attachment due to the British Government, but who, during the period of the Agency of Captain John Baillie, having been by a combination of accidental circumstances prevented from waiting upon that gentleman, deputed Raj Dhur Guga Sing Bahadur on his (the said Rajah's) part, who presented a list of several villages to the aforesaid gentleman, and received a Sunnud for the same, but was not put in possession of those villages; and moreover many of the villages and lands belonging to the hereditary possessions of the said Rajah, as the share of Herdee Sah, which were in the possession of usurpers, and persons who had no claim thereto, were not included in the above Sunnud-Afterwards, during the Agency of Mr. John Richardson, the aforesaid Rajah Kishore Sing himself having waited upon that gentleman, was by the orders of the British Government put in possession of all the villages and lands included in the Sunnud already alluded to, and also of those villages and lands which were unjustly possessed by usurpers and false claimants, and every other dispute that existed with other Chiefs and Rajahs having been adjusted and settled:-At this juncture the said Rajah has delivered in an Ikramamah (or obligation of allegiance), containing eleven distinct Articles, expressive of his allegiance and attachment to the British Government, and requesting that a Sunnud, confirming the villages and lands at present in his possession may be granted by the British Government. For the above reasons the villages and lands enumerated in the subjoined schedule, with all the rights and tenures and usages, revenues, lands or sayer, together with forts and fortified places, are hereby granted to the said Rajah and his heirs, exempt from the payment of revenue in perpetuity. So long as the said Rajah Kishore Sing and his heirs shall observe and adhere faithfully to the Articles of the obligation of allegiance which he has delivered in to the British Government, no sort of molestation or resumption shall ever take place on the part of the British Government. It is necessary that you shall all consider and view the said Rajah as the proprietor and Lord of the above enumerated possessions. The conduct which it is incumbent on the said Maharajah to observe, is to exert himself to the utmost of his power in the cultivation and improvement of the said possessions, and to pay attention to the prosperity and comfort of the people, and to enjoy the produce of the same in firm obedience, loyalty, and submission to the British Government. After the sanction of the Right Honourable the Governor-General in Council shall be obtained, Sunnud, to the same effect, signed by the Right Honourable the Governor-General in Council, shall be exchanged or substituted in the place of the present Sunnud granted by the Agent to the Governor-General.

Ratified by the Governor-General in Council on 3rd May 1811.

Anriver.

The villages above-mentioned having been continued in your possession under the authority of the British Government, it is impossible that any Chief of this country can lay claim to them. If however any such claim should be preferred by any one it shall not be attended to without investigation. With regard to your servants and dependants no interference whatever shall take place.

Answer.

If the British Government require at any time the performance of extraordinary service by your troops, they will provide the means of their subsistence during the period of their employment. You must be careful however not to admit into the vicinity of your villages any turbulent or disaffected persons; and, on the contrary, if any such persons molest the British possessions in the neighbourhood of your villages, you must expel and punish them yourself. This conduct will cutitle you to the favor of the British Government.

Translation of an Obligation of Allegiance presented by Koour Pertab Sing,—1816.

Whereas in the year 1806 A.D., corresponding with 1863 Sumbut, my father Koour Sonee Sah professed his obedience and submission to the British Government, and having in token thereof eeded to the British Government the town and chokee of Chutterpore and the towns of Mow and Salut, he obtained from Colonel John Baillie, then Agent to the Governor-General, a Sunnud in perpetuity for the lands and villages in his actual possession; and Whereas in the year 1808, the British Government was pleased to restore the town of Mow to my father and to settle the town of Chutterpore in jaghire upon me; and Whereas in consequence of the demise of my father and with a view to the provision of my brothers, an obligation of allegiance to the British Government, preparatory to my being invested with a Sunnud for the lands and villages composing the jaghire of the late Koour Sonce Sah, has been required of me; Wherefore, and in further proof of my submission, fidelity, and attachment to the British Government, I have prepared and hereby present to Mr. John Wauehope, Superintendent of Political Affairs in Bundeleund, on the part of the Right Honorable the Governor-General, this Ikrarnamah, containing the following ten Articles, from which I solemnly promise never to deviate or depart in any instance whatever.

ARTICLE 1.

I engage to maintain no intercourse with any marauders, whether in or out of the province of Bundeleund, to give them or their families no asylum in my

The said of the said

jaghire, and to abstain from all correspondence with them. I promise to engage in no dispute nor quarrel with the adherents or dependants of the British Government, and in the event of any Chieftain or Rajah of the province, in alliance with the British Government, entering into a dispute with me respecting the boundaries of my mehals or villages, or in any other subject whatever, I engage to represent all the circumstances of the ease to the British Government, with a view to the adjustment of the dispute, to abide implicitly by its decision, and to take no steps towards obtaining redress with my own hands, without the authority of the British Government, to which I promise to conduct myself on all occasions with strict obedience and submission.

ARTICLE 2.

I engage to guard all the passes in my jaghire in such manner as to obstruct the inroads of marauders and plunderers as well as all enemies of the British Government, and effectually to prevent them from obtaining a passage through my ilakah into the British territories; and if any Chiefs or Commanders of troops belonging to the neighbouring countries attempt to penetrate through my jurisdiction into the British territories, I engage to convey intelligence of their approach to the British Officers before they shall have arrived on the frontier of my jaghire, and to exert myself to the utmost of my power in opposing them.

ARTICLE 3.

Whenever the British troops shall have oeeasion to pass through my jaghire, whether for the purpose of ascending the Ghâts or of proceeding in any other direction, I promise not only not to oppose or obstruct their march, but on the contrary to depute respectable and intelligent persons to conduct them by any route they may please to follow. I further engage to execute with zeal and alacrity all requisitions I may receive from the Commanding Officer of the British troops, whether in furnishing him with supplies and other necessary articles, or in co-operating with my own troops and followers in accomplishing whatever object he may have in view.

ARTICLE 4.

If any of the inhabitants of the British territory absende and take refuge in any of the villages of my jaghire, I engage to seize and deliver them up to the Officers of the British Government; and if a person on the part of the British Government be sent to apprehend such absconder, I agree not only not to oppose such person, but to co-operate with him effectually in apprehending the fugitive.

ARTICLE 5.

I engage not to harbour thieves or robbers in any of the villages eomposing my jaghire; and if the property of any of the inhabitants or travellers be stolen or robbed in any of my villages, I engage to make the zemindars of such village responsible for the restitution of the stolen property or for the seizure and surrender of the thief or robber to the British Officers; and if any person amenable to the British laws for murder or other crimes committed in the British territory, shall take refuge in any of my villages, I engage to apprehend and deliver up such offender to the British Government, and further to give every assistance in my power to any persons who may be sent on the part of the British Government in pursuit of him.

ARTICLE 6.

Should it at any time hereafter be clearly proved to the satisfaction of the Right Honorable the Governor-General in Council that any of the villages comprised in the Sunnud which I have now obtained from the British Government do not rightfully belong to me, I hereby engage to make no difficulty or hesitation in giving up those villages to the Officers of the British Government, and to advance no objections to the surrender of such villages on the plea of their being included in my Sunnud.

ARTICLE 7.

As the lands and villages enumerated in my Sunnud are now in my actual possession, I hereby disclaim all right to the assistance of the British Government, whether in establishing my control over those lands and villages, or in recovering possession of them in the event of my at any time being dispossessed of them.

ARTICLE 8.

I engage to give no assistance whatever, directly or indirectly, to any person or Chieftain at enmity with the British Government. I further engage not to enter nor permit my followers to enter into the service of any Chief, whether in terms of friendship with the British Government or not, without the express sanction of the British Government.

ARTICLE 9.

I hereby consent that my three legitimate brothers, Koour Pirthee Sing, Koour Hindooput, and Koour Bukht Sing, and my illegitimate brother Koour Himmut Sing, shall be placed in possession of the lands and villages particularly specified in my Sunnud, and I solemnly promise and engage to offer no molestation whatever to them in the possession of those lands during their lifetime. As the head and representative of my family, I consider myself bound to promote their welfare, and to conduct myself towards them, their families and children, with that liberality, kindness and attention which is becoming from one brother to another. In the event of a dispute arising between me and any of my brothers, from whatever cause, I agree to submit it for the consideration and decision of the British Government, and to trust unconditionally to whatever decision it may in its justice and wisdom award for the punishment of the aggressor and the settlement of our respective rights. I further engage to promote to the utmost of my power a general and mutual good understanding with all my brothers, to forget all past animosities, and to live with them in unanimity and brotherly love.

ARTICLE 10.

I agree to appoint a confidential person to attend as Agent on the Superintendent of Political Affairs in Bundelcund, who will be prepared to execute all orders he may receive, and if for any reason the Superintendent of Political Affairs should be displeased with such Agent, I agree immediately to recall him and to appoint another in his stead.

I hereby declare that I will in no respect whatever omit to fulfil all the conditions of the foregoing ten Articles contained in this obligation.

FORM of a SUNNUD granted to KOOAR PERTAB SING under the Seal and Signature of the Governor-General in Council.

Dated 11th January 1817.

Be it known to the chowdries, kanoongoes and zemindars of the province of Bundelcund; that Whereas in the year 1806, corresponding with the year 1863 Sumbut, Kooar Sonee Sah, having professed his obedience and submission and having ceded to the British Government the towns of Chutterpore, Mow, and Salut, with their depending villages, was vested by the British Government with a hereditary grant of the remaining lands then in his actual possession; and Whereas, in the year 1808, the British Government was pleased to restore the town of Mow to Kooar Sonee Sah and to settle the town of Chutterpore upon his eldest son Kooar Pertab Sing; and Whereas in consequence of the demise of Kooar Sonee Sah (which happened on the 4th May 1816, corresponding with the 20th Bysack, Sumbut 1873), and the unequal and inconvenient disposition which the Kooar before his death made of his lands, rendering all his sons independent of each other, it has become necessary for the British Government to interpose the power which its feudal supremacy legally vests in it, in order to prevent the public inconvenience that was likely to result from that unequal disposition; and Whereas the British Government by virtue of that power and in view to the public security and tranquillity, has been pleased to recognise Kooar Sing as successor to his father Kooar Sonee Sah, and to confirm him in possession of his father's jaghire, on condition of his making a suitable provision for his younger brothers and their families; and Whereas Kooar Pertab Sing has entered into and has this day presented an Ikrarnamah or obligation of allegiance to the British Government, comprising ten Articles, by which he binds himself among other stipulations to leave to his younger brothers the unmolested possession during their lifetime of the lands which are hereafter particularized in this Sunnud: Wherefore, and under the considerations and principles above set forth, the villages and lands specified in the subjoined schedule, with the re servation of the life-tenure to his younger brothers, which is also particularized in the said schedule, are hereby granted to Kooar Pertab Sing and to his heirs in perpetuity rent-free by the British Government; and so long as the said Kooar Pertab Sing and his heirs shall conduct themselves in obedience and submission to the British Government, and shall strictly adhere to all the terms and conditions of their engagements, they shall not be molested nor disturbed in the possession of their lands and villages aforesaid.

It is your duty therefore to acknowledge and obey Kooar Pertab Sing as the 'jaghiredar of the aforesaid villages, and to consider yourselves as accountable to him for all rights and immunities appertaining thereto. It is on the other hand incumbent on the said Kooar Pertab Sing to conciliate and render grateful the peasantry and inhabitants by his good government, to devote his endeavours to increase the population and to enhance the prosperity of his jaghire, and to employ its flourishing resources in the service of the British Government.

Ratified by the Governor-General in Council on 18th January 1817.

For schedule of villages, see Appendix No. VII.

AGREEMENT signed by Pertab Sing's Younger Brothers on 12th September 1816.

ARTICLE 1.

The British Government having been graciously pleased, out of a respect for the wishes of my father Kooar Sonee Sah, to confirm to me as a provision during my lifetime the lands and villages contained in a separate list which I have received from the Political Superintendent, and which are also particularly specified in the Sunnud of Kooar Pertab Sing, on condition of my manifesting due respect and subordination towards Pertab Sing as the representative of my family, I hereby engage to demean myself towards Pertab Sing with that respect and submission which is due to him as the acknowledged head and representative of our family; and as the British Government has been generously pleased to protect me, so long as I adhere to my engagements, against any unjust encroachments on the part of Kooar Pertab Sing, I on my part engage to give a cheerful acquiescence to such general control and superintendence over my affairs as it may be necessary for Kooar Pertab Sing to exercise, with a view as well to the due fulfilment of his obligations to the British Government as to the general welfare and prosperity of the jaghire.

ARTICLE 2.

Having received an attested copy of the obligation of allegiance executed by Kooar Pertab Sing to the British Government, I hereby acknowledge all the terms of that obligation to be fully and unequivocally binding on myself as far as they relate to my individual means and the resources of the lands in my immediate occupation, and I hereby solemnly engage to contribute by all the means in my power to the prompt and effectual execution of all the duties and stipulations which are imposed on Kooar Pertab Sing by that instrument, and to obey with promptitude and effect every requisition that may be made upon me connected with those duties and stipulations, whether such requisition shall come directly from the British Government or from Kooar Pertab Sing.

ARTICLE 3.

Being sincerely convinced that my own welfare and prosperity as well as the general welfare of the family essentially depends on our being cordially united among ourselves, I faithfully promise to forget all past animosities that may have subsisted between me and my brother Kooar Pertab Sing, to avoid carefully any future cause of irritation, and to live with him and my other brothers in cordial friendship and brotherly love.

Translation of Sunnud given to the Brothers of Kooar Pertab Sing under the signature of the Superintendent of Political Affairs,—1817.

Whereas Kooar Pertab Sing has succeeded by the death of Kooar Sonee Sah to the jaghire of Rajnagur, etc.; and Whereas the British Government, having, in consideration of the desire of Kooar Sonee Sah, and with a view to the support of Kooar Perthee Sing the second son of Kooar Sonee Sah and his family, determined that the said Kooar Perthee Sing should hold a life-tenure of the undermentioned villages belonging to the aforesaid jaghire on certain conditions of submission to the British Government and subordination to Kooar Pertab Sing, the head and representative of the family; and Whereas Kooar Perthee Sing has executed and presented to Mr. Wauchope, Superintendent of Political Affairs, an Ikrarnamah containing three Articles, expressive of his sincere obedience to the British Government, and stipulating a due subordination to Kooar Pertab Sing; and Kooar Perthee Sing having solicited a Sunnud for the villages that have been assigned to him: Therefore, and in compliance with the request of Kooar Perthee Sing, this Sunnud is hereby granted, after being approved under date the 11th April 1817 by the Right Honorable the Governor-General, for the undermentioned villages, to be held by him during his lifetime, on condition of his strictly observing all the terms of his Ikrarnamah, and to revert to Kooar Pertab Sing after his death.

It must be distinctly understood that the British Government will at any time suspend or revoke the authority thus conveyed, should circumstances appear to call for such a proceeding.

IKRARNAMAH OF OBLIGATION of ALLEGIANCE,-1807.

We, Dewan Aperbul Sing and Dewan Chuthary, declare that we have submitted in person to the British Government, and with a view to confirm our obedience and submission to the British Government, we do hereby present this Ikrarnamah comprising the following Articles:—

ARTICLE 1.

Whereas at the period when the British troops first arrived for the purpose of subduing and punishing the refractory in the province of Bundeleund, we cheerfully and voluntarily acknowledged our obedience and submission to the British Government, and have now been admitted among the number of its dependants; and Whereas John Riehardson, Esq., who has been lately invested by the Right Honorable the Governor-General with the general superintendence and control of the province of Bundeleund, having requested of us an Ikramamah or obligation of allegiance: Therefore, and in consideration of the ample provision which the British Government has been pleased to bestow upon us, we have prepared and do hereby present this Ikramamah, comprising the following Articles, trom the conditions of which we promise never to depart, and never to commit any act in violation of any of the subjoined Articles.

ARTICLE 2.

We hereby engage to have no intercourse, transactions, or correspondence with any marauders or evil-disposed persons either within or without the province of Bundeleund, and never to harbour or permit any such persons to reside in our villages; and whenever we shall obtain information of the haunts of such persons, we engage to use our endeavours to apprehend them, and deliver them up to the Officers of the British Government. We engage never to enter into disputes with any of the servants or dependants of the British Government and never to afford any assistance to any of the Chiefs dependant on the British Government in the event of disputes arising among them, without orders from the British Officers, and on all occasions scrupulously to observe the strictest obedience and submission to the British Government.

ARTICLE 3.

If any subject of the British Government absend and take refuge in any of the villages comprising our jaghires, we engage to seize and deliver him to the servants of the British Government, and if any person be deputed on the part of the British Government to apprehend such absender, we agree not only not to oppose that person, but to co-operate with him in the apprehension of the absender: and we agree to obey the orders of the Civil and Criminal Courts on all occasions.

ARTICLE 4.

We engage not to permit thieves or robbers to reside in any of our villages; and if the property of any of the inhabitants or travellers be plundered or stolen in any of our villages, we engage to make the zemindar of such village responsible for the stolen property or for the seizure and delivery of the robber or thief to the Officers of the British Government; and if any person amenable to the British law for murder or other crimes committed in the British Government take refuge in any of our villages, we further engage to seize such offender and deliver him up to the British Government.

ARTICLE 5.

Whereas the Sunnuds which we have received from the British Government have been drawn out in conformity to the ancient Sunnuds which we have presented; if it shall hereafter be clearly proved that any of the villages comprised in these Sunnuds were not in our possession during the government of the late Nabob Alee Bahadoor, but have been occupied by us subsequently to the death of the late Nabob, we hereby agree to give up any such villages, without difficulty or hesitation, to the Officers of the British Government, and not to advance any objection to the surrender of them on the score of such villages being included in the Sunnuds which we have received from the British Government.

Request.

Having submitted in person to the British Government in the hope of obtaining a subsistence and of benefitting myself, and having agreed to the arrangement which you have determined on in my favor, I solicit a nankar Sunnud for the villages assigned for my jaghire, granting them to me and to my successors in perpetuity free from any conditions of service, and in such manner that the said villages may be in the immediate occupation of myself and of my posterity.

Request.

I agree to reside with my dependants in one of the villages of my jaghire or in the town of Banda. If, however, I should go anywhere for service, let me not be prohibited from doing so, nor my motives enquired into by the Government.

Request.

During the period previous to my submission to the British Government I have excited disturbances and committed depredations in the province of Bundeleund, both in the British and other territories, and I have possessed myself of real and personal property, of eattle, and of other articles of every description. I request that no notice

Answer.

A Sunnud in perpetuity and free from any conditions of service shall be granted to you.

Answer.

There is no objection to your entering any service with exception to that of an enemy or rebel of the British Government. It is necessary, however, that you solicit the permission of the Government previously to your proceeding anywhere in quest of service; neither must you afford assistance to any of the adherents of the British Government, nor to any other person inviting your co-operation without the previous sanction of the Government.

Answer.

No notice shall be taken on the part of the Government of any transactions, the origin of which shall be prior to the date of your obligation of allegiance, nor shall any complaint preferred in consequence of any such transactions be listened to. be taken by the Government of any of those acts, and that no complaint in consequence of them be listened to.

Request.

I have acknowledged my obedience and submission to the British Government; if therefore any person from malice or enmity calumniate or cast suspicion upon my character to the British Government, I request that no such accusations may be received without investigation, and should they prove to be malicious and groundless that the calumniator may be punished.

Request.

I request that all complaints preferred against me by my servants and creditors be rejected and not be enquired into.

Request.

Let the same degree of respect and consideration which I have received from you be continued towards me.

Request.

In the event of my disposing of any of the villages comprised in my jaghire by gift or by sale, or dividing them among my children, I request that the persons to whom they may be so disposed of may also be entitled to possess them in perpetuity.

Answer.

No assertion regarding you shall be received or attended to without investigation, and if any person shall be convicted of calumniating you, he shall be treated as he deserves.

Answer.

No complaints preferred by your servants and creditors regarding transactions which shall have occurred anterior to your obligation of allegiance shall be heard. But those which shall occur subsequently to that period shall certainly be liable to investigation.

Answer.

The same respect shall be continued to be shewn to you, and shall even be increased in proportion to the future sincerity of your obedience.

Answer.

Inasmuch as the villages have been granted in perpetuity to you those also to whom you may dispose of them will possess a similar title to them. But no gift, sale, or transfer will be valid unless the previous consent of Government to the transaction shall be obtained. It is therefore necessary, in either of these cases, to obtain the consent of Government first and then to give, sell, or transfer; and even after the above gift, sale, or transfer shall have taken place, the validity of the above gift, sale, or transfer, and the right acquired thereby will entirely depend upon your faithful adherence to the Articles of Agreement contained in your Ikrarnamah, and the said lands shall become resumable by Government on any breach thereof on your part.

Request.

I trust that the villages in the possession of the remainder of my successors may not be confiscated for the offence of one person.

Request.

Several of the zemindars of the pergunnahs of the sirkar have obtained remissions in their revenue on account of teeps and vouchers which they have presented, written in my name. There is still a balance of those teeps due by the zemindars, and I therefore hope that, whatever portion of the remission they have received shall be proved to be still due by them, may be given to me.

When you perform any praiseworthy service to Government, Government itself will confer upon you rewards equal to your services without your requiring them.

Answer.

Do you in your own manner endeavour to recover the property in question. It is most probable that after your having submitted to the British Government, the Chiefs concerned will of themselves cause the property to be delivered up; otherwise, state the particulars to Government, that after understanding the case whatever may be proper may be done.

A.

Translation of an Ikrarnamae of Obligation of Allegiance entered into by Dewan Gopaul Sing,—1812.

I, Gopaul Sing, do hereby declare and acknowledge in writing that I have submitted in person to the British Government; and with a view to confirm my obedience and submission, I hereby present this Ikrarnamah containing the following Articles:—

cund, has required from me an Ikrarnamah or obligation of allegiance: therefore, and in consideration of the ample provision which has lately been granted to me by the British Government, I do hereby present this Ikrarnamah, signed and sealed by myself, from which I engage never to deviate, and never to commit any act in violation of the terms contained in the subjoined Articles.

ARTICLE 2.

I hereby promise and engage that in future I myself, or my brother's children or brothers, or any of my adherents, shall never be guilty of any act of plunder or excess in the pergunnah of Kotra, etc., the possessions of the Rajah Bukht Sing, or the possessions of any of the dependants of the British Government. If any of the above-mentioned, my relations or adherents, shall be guilty of any excess, I am to be held responsible and liable to any punishment Government may in its justice direct.

ARTICLE 3.

I agree to reside with my family and children in one of the villages forming my jaghire. If I wish to reside in, or build a dwelling in the territories of any of the Chiefs dependent on the British Government, I shall first obtain the permission of the British Government, and not go to any other place without the permission of the Government.

ARTICLE 4.

I engage not only to have no connection with any marauders, plunderers, robbers or other evil-disposed persons, either within or out of the province of Bundel-cund, or the other dominions of the British Government, and not to let them shelter or remain in any of the villages of my jaghire, but to give every information I may possess regarding their haunts to officers of Government, and, if possible, I promise to seize and deliver them up to the British Government; I promise to discontinue all intercourse and correspondence with the above persons, and to avoid entering into disputes with any of the servants or adherents of the British Government. If eventually a dispute should arise between any of the adherents of the Government, I further engage to afford no assistance to either party, without the orders of the Government, but to remain quietly within my own territory in implicit obedience to the British Government.

ARTICLE 5.

If any subject of the British Government abscond and take refuge in any of the villages of my jaghire, I engage to seize and deliver up such absconder to the officers of the British Government; and should any person be sent on the part of the Government to apprehend the fugitive, I engage not only not to obstruct nor impede such person, but to co-operate with him in the apprehension of the fugitive. I further engage to obey the orders of the Civil and Criminal Courts in all transactions which shall occur after the date of this obligation, and shall be issued by the Agent to the Governor-General, and never to excite commotions or disturbances in any manner whatever.

It is incumbent on the said Dewan Gopaul Sing to render the inhabitants and peasantry of the aforesaid villages contented and grateful for his good government, to direct his utmost endeavours to the promotion of their comfort and happiness, and to afford no asylum to thieves and robbers in any one of his villages. It is the duty of the inhabitants to consider the said Dewan Gopaul Sing as the jaghiredar of the aforementioned villages; to acknowledge his title to the privileges and immunities appertaining to them; to evince no opposition or disobedience and immunities appertaining to them; to evince no opposition or disobedience whatever to the said Dewan Gopaul Sing, nor require from him the annual renewal of his Sunnud.

II'-BYCHELKHAND.

THE Baghelkhand Agency, which then comprised the States of Rewa, 1871. A British Agent was temporarily attached to Rewa in 1857, and shortly afterwards the confiscated Estate of Bijairaghogarh, and the States of Magod, Maihar and Sohawal, which were under British ananagement, were placed under his jurisdiction. The Political Agent was withdrawn in 1862 at the Maharaja's request, and his charge was added to that of the Political Agent, Bundelkhand, in whose hands it remained until the re-establishment of the separate Agency in 1871. For administrative convenience the State of Baraudha and the Jagirs of Jaso, Paldeo, Taraon, Bhaisaunda, Pahra and Kamta Rajaula were in 1896 transferred from the Bundelkhand Agency to the Barahelkhand Agency.

Transit duties have been abolished by all the Chiefs in Baghelkhand. No separate extradition arrangements have been concluded with them; extradition is effected in accordance with the procedure for the time being in force in British India; but there are reciprocal arrangements on certain matters, e.g., extradition, surrender of police and military deserters, service of summons, etc., between the States in Baghelkhand and certain other States in and outside Central India and adjoining British districts. Rewa is the only State in Baghelkhand held under treaty; the others are held under Sanads. None of the States or Jagirs pay any tribute, except the Jagir of Paldeo (q.v.).

The area of Baghelkhand is 14,706 square miles, with a population, according to the Census of 1921, of 1,638,623.

I. Rewa.

The Chiefs of Reva are Baghel Rajputs, descended from the Gujarat family which ruled at Anhilwara Patan Irom 1219 to 1296. A member of the family migrated to Northern India and obtained possession of Bandhogarh, which remained the capital of the Baghel possessions until its capture by Akbar in 1597, when Rewa became the chief town.

The first Ruler of Rews with whom a treaty was made was Maharaja Jai Singh Deo. Overtures, made in 1803 after the conclusion of the Treaty of Bassein (see Vol. VII, The Peshwa), were rejected by him. In 1812, however, a body of Pindaris invaded Mirzapur through Rews territory, and the Maharaja was believed either to have abetted this enterprise through deliberate design, or to have countenanced it through weakness. He was accordingly required in 1812 to accede to a Treaty weakness. He was accordingly required in 1812 to accede to a Treaty was In which he was acknowledged as the ruler of his possessions; was brought under the protection of the British Government, to whose was brought under the protection of the British Government, to whose

The British Government have on two occasions certain of his subordinate Chiefs who had rendered assistance to the fresh Treaty (No. IV) on the Maharaja, on his promising not to molest deprived of their proprietary rights, which were conferred in 1814 by a against the British Government. The landholders in Singrauli were Singh was pardoned on his engaging (No. III) never again to offend been agreed on for the purpose of negotiating the Treaty. Zabardast had attacked a party of British troops during an armistice which had the punishment of certain landholders in the Singrauli district, who post to be laid through his territories; and the 8th Article related to of Churhat, who had contumaciously refused to allow the Government right of the British Government to punish Lal Zabardast Singh, Jagirdar British Government. The 5th Article of the Treaty acknowledged the previous Treaty and defining more clearly the Ruler's relations with the the 2nd June 1813, another Treaty (No. II) was made, confirming the ments and to obtain security for their future fulfilment. Accordingly, on detachment. Troops were sent to enforce the execution of the engagepost was established in his territory, he attempted to starve out the Jai Singh Deo failed to fulfil his obligations and, when a military Jai Singh Deo abdicated in favour of his son Bishwanath Singh, who was succeeded in 1854 by his son Raghuraj Singh. According to local chronicles, he was the thirty-second of his line.

In 1847 the Maharaja prohibited sati throughout his dominions.

For his services in the mutiny of 1857 the district of Sohaspur and the village of Amarkantak were conferred in sovereignty upon Raghura, Singh, who was informed that, in his dealings with the practice of would be expected to adopt a course in conformity with the practice of the British Government.

In 1862 the Ruler of Reva received a Sanad of Adoption (No. V). In 1863 the Maharaja ceded the land required for railway purposes with all his sovereign rights thereon (No. VI).

In 1867 the Ruler of Rews was granted a permanent salute of 17 guns.

In 1867 Raghuraj Singh, at whose request the British Agent temporarily appointed in 1857 to assist him in his government had been withdrawn in 1862, desired the direct interference of the British Government in effecting reforms in the administration of his State; but the Maharaja himself to discharge his duties as a ruler. In 1868 he abolished the system of levying transit dues as well as that of farming the abolished the system of levying transit dues as well as that of farming the the revenue to contractors; and, as a further means of remedying the disorganisation into which the State had fallen, appointed Raja Dinkar Rao as his Minister. The British Government consented to the arrangement, but declined to grazantee the position of the Alinister, who was compelled eventually to abandon the task he had undertaken. In 1870 Government agreed to the Maharaja's request for the re-establishment of the separate Agency. Since its withdrawal in 1862, the political supervision of Rewa affairs had been entrusted to the Bundel-political supervision of Rewa affairs had been entrusted to the Bundel-khand Agent.

In 1873 the Maharaja, to avenge an insult alleged to have been offered to the Maharani, violated his treaty engagements by despatching into Sohawal territory an armed force, which plandered a house and murdered one of its inmates. For this offence he was fined Rs. 10,000, and the Sardars who had aided him in its commission were fined Rs. 1,000 each.

In 1875 the Maharaja represented his inability to manage the affairs of his State, and agreed (No. VII) to make over the administration to the Political Agent, aided by the Minister, I.al Randiman Singh, until the Jobits of the State should be liquidated and a proper government established. The proposal was acceded to on the understanding that, when the time should arrive for the British Government to withdraw from the direct management of the State, an engagement should be given by the British Covernment, and to protect any rights which might have by the British dovernment, and to protect any rights which might have sprung up under British administration.

Maharaja Raghuraj Singh died in 1880, and was succeeded by his son Venkat Raman Singh.

In May 1881 Ram Raj Singh, the subordinate Chief of Madhogarh, who was heir presumptive to the Rewa gaddi, died without issue. The Estate was resumed by Rewa on the ground that the Alaharaja was the nearest male relative of the deceased and that the Estate, which had been assigned in 1809 by Maharaja Jai Singh Deo as the portion of his second son, reverted, on failure of direct heirs, to the State. This action was upheld by the Government of India.

In Pebruary 1882 the Political Agent, Baghelkhand, who had continued since 1875 to administer Rewa, was appointed as a consultative body to assist the Superintendent in the administration of the State, and to advise in matters connected with the Maharaja's family and the customs of the State.

In 1882 the State assumed responsibility for the maintenance of the portions of the Great Decean Road, Rewa-Sutna Road and Sohagi Pass Road lying within Rewa territory.

In 1883 the State agreed to cede, with full jurisdiction thereon, the lands required for the Bengal-Nagpur Railway (No. VIII).

In January 1885 the Rewa State handed over to the Government of and mining rights in the Umaria coassed at a royalty to the Darbar. In April 1885 civil and criminal jurisdiction over the coassed and mining rights in the Umaria coassed to the Darbar. In April 1885 civil and criminal jurisdiction over the coassed was ceded to the Government of India, who entrusted the immediate administrative control of the tract and the executive management of the operations to the Chief Commissioner of the Central Provinces. The whole arrangement, which was subject to reconsideration on the Maharaja's majority, terminated at the Maharaja's request on the lst January 1900, when the colliery was retransferred to the Rewa Darbar on the understanding that any proposal to transfer it thereafter to a company standing that any proposal to transfer it thereafter to a company

In May 1902 an agreement was made between the Bengal-Nagpur Railway Company and the Maharaja, as the proprietor of the Rewa State colliery at Umaria, for the performance by the latter of certain purpose at the pit-head terminus of the Umaria branch line, for the purpose of developing the coal traffic between the colliery and the stations of the railway company and other connected railway lines via the Umaria station of the company.

Venkat Raman Singh died on the 30th October 1918 and was succeeded by his elder son the present Maharaja Gulab Singh, born on the 13th March 1903. During the ensuing minority the administration was, in accordance with the wishes expressed by the late Maharaja, carried on by his brother-in-law, Maharaja Sajjan Singh of Ratlam, as Regent, assisted by a Council.

The termination of the minority and the investiture of Maharaja Gulab Singh with full powers was announced by the Viceroy at a Darbar held on the 31st October 1922.

In 1924 the State consented to the construction of a Railway line from Hutra to Annupur through its territory.

In the same year the State entered into an agreement with the Bengal-Nagpur Railway for the construction, working and maintenance of a siding to serve the Burhar State collieries. This was followed by another, concluded in 1926; and by a supplementary agreement, made in 1929, regarding the working of coal under the siding.

In 1930 the title of Maharajadhiraja was recognised as a hereditary distinction in favour of the Ruler of Rewa, whose territorial designation

SECOND TREATY concluded between the British Government and Radan Jer Sing Deo,—1813.

Whereas on the 5th of October 1812, corresponding with 15th Koorr 1869 Sumbut, a Treaty of mutual friendship and defensive alliance was concluded between the British Government and the Rajah of Rewah having failed to fulfil the engagements which the aforementioned Treaty imposed upon him, the British Government was compelled, in vindication of its honour and its rights, to detach its troops into Rewah to enforce the execution of those engagements, and to obtain security for their due fulfilment in future; of those engagements, and to obtain security for their due fulfilment in future; and Whereas the Rajah, having now returned to a proper sense of his relations and Whereas the Rajah, having now returned to a proper sense of his relations with the British Government, and having expressed his contrition for the past, agrees to the following conditions, for himself, and for his heirs and successors.

ARTICLE I.

All the stipulations of the Treaty concluded on the 5th of Oetober 1812, corresponding with the 15th of Kooar 1869 Sumbut, are hereby declared to be in full force and effect, in as far as they are not affected nor altered by the following conditions contained in this Treaty.

ARTICLE 2.

The Rajah of Rewah hereby binds himself to engage in no correspondence of a political nature with any Foreign State or Chief whatever without the privity and consent of the British Government, or its representative, the Agent in Bundeleund.

ARTICLE 3.

The Rajah engages to receive and permit to remain at his place of residence a news-writer or any other Agent on the part of the British Government or the Agent in Bundelcund, and to maintain an authorized vakeel with the Agent and within his territory, both for the purpose of maintaining the general relations of amity, and of enforcing the supply of provisions, and ready compliance with the just demands of the Commanding Officer.

The Rajah of Rewah agrees to allow dawks to be established through his territory by the Officers of the British Government in any direction that may be deemed necessary, to compel his fendatory Chiefs to do the same, and to punish them in ease of opposition; and the Rajah acknowledges the right of the British Government to punish them for such opposition, in the event of his own inability

ARTICLE 5.

Lall Zubburdust Sing, the jaghiredar of Chourhut, having, in a very insulting and contumacious manner, refused to permit the Hon'ble Company's dawk to be laid through his jaghire, the exemplary punishment of the aforcasid jaghiredar is indispensable. The British Government is accordingly resolved to inflict exemplary punishment on this jaghiredar, and the Rajah of Rewah not only acknowledges the right of the British Government to do so, but agrees to aid a co-operate with the British troops in effecting that object.

The Rajah further engages to use his utmost means to punish Lall Zubburdust Sing himself, whenever the British Government shall require him to do so.

ARTICLE 6.

Frequent instances of robbories and other crimes have occurred within the British territory, the perpetrators of which issue from and take refuge within the Rewah territory; and thereby not only escape the punishment due to their crimes, but continue to infest the Hon'ble Company's adjacent territory with impunity, keeping the inhabitants in a constant state of alarm. With a view to suppress this evil, the Rajah hereby agrees to permit the troops or Police Officers of the British Government to pass into the Rewah territories for the pursuit and apprehension of all such offenders, and also to afford them, and to cause his officers and jaghiredars to afford them, every necessary assistance in discovering and apprehending the objects of their pursuit.

Anrione 7.

The Rajah of Rewah agrees to consider those jaghiredars and others, residents of his country, who have been well-disposed towards the British Government, on the present occasion, as his friends; and will not molest or retaliate upon them for the favourable disposition they may have shown. The friends of the British Government shall be his friends, and its enemies his enemies.

ARTICLE 9.

It is both just and equitable that the Rajah of Rewah should indennify the British Government for the expense of the armament which has been equipped and marched into Rewah in consequence of his failure to perform the conditions of his former engagements. At the lowest estimation the extra expense of that armament costs the British Government the sum of thirty-three thousand eight hundred and eight Rupees per mensem, and the preparations having commenced some days before the lat of April 1813, corresponding with the 15th of Chybe some days before the lat of April 1813, corresponding with the 15th of Chybe 1870 Sumbut, it is agreed by the British Government that the expense shall be

His Highness the Maharajah of Rewah, accompanied by his Chief Minister, Lall Rundmon Sing, at an interview with the Governor-General's Agent and Political Agent at Rewah on 30th January 1875, made the following representation:—

The management of my State has long been a matter of difficulty to me. The Government of India in view to relief at my earnest instance appointed a Political Agent and granted a loan of ten lakha. I thought that supported by the advice of the Political Agent, I should be able to introduce a fair system of administration and restore the revenue which has long been decreasing. The result has not been to my anticipations.

The revenue, though collected from the ryots, does not reach my Treasury, consequently there is no money wherewith to pay establishments or meet my engagements to Government respecting the payment of the ten lakha' loan,

I.—I desire, therefore, with the sanction of His Excellency the Viceroy, to make over my State, until debte are liquidated and a system of administration established, to the care of the Political Agent,

2.—The Political Agent knows the character of my Chief Minister, Rundmon Sing, and is willing with his assistance to render me all help.

3.—From the time the Political Agent assumes charge of the administration

I will abstain from interference of every sort.

4.-I will issue no orders on State matters.

5.—It will rest with the Political Agent to maintain or dismiss any State servant, and I will do my best to support his authority.

6.—A suitable allowance will be regularly paid me to enable me to live with comfort and dignity.

7.—I shall reside at Govindglinr, Rewah, Sutura, as heretofore.

Translation of Memorandm by the Rewan Council of Shedring the Phoe Umaria Coal and the proposed Railway from Kathi to Bilaspur through Umaria, etc.,—1883.

We, the Sirdars of the Council, came to Sutna this day, and the Superintendent of Rewah has informed us that the Government of India propose to open up the Umaria, Johilla and Solugpur coal-fields, and to construct a railway from Katni to Bilaspur through the above-named places.

Having understood the intention of Government, we consider that the Rewath State should grant land for the construction of the line of railway, together with full jurisdiction thereon, according to the arrangements observed when the East Indian Railway line was constructed, that is to say, the land and jurisdiction should now be granted to Government by the State, and the State should arrange to compensate landholders.

As to the coal mines of Umaria, Johilla and Sohagpur, a contract is to be given to a company of capitalists for 99 years, and the agreement which may be entered into by Government on behalf of the Rewah State should be observed by this State.

The Superintendent of Rewah has explained to us that, without making a railway, the coal cannot be developed, and the greater the facility of means for conveying it, the greater will be the extent to which the coal mines will be worked, and the consequent profits to the State. We believe that this line from Katni to Bilaspur will cost above two krores of rupees.

We understand from what the Superintendent of Rewah has told us that the opening of this line will greatly facilitate the conveyance of eoal; that it will also give an impulse to trade in the districts through which it passes; that foodgrains, timber, etc., which are now exported with great difficulty for want of roads and transport, will be easily carried to markets by rail and there sell to advantage: that, in addition, the prosperity of towns and villages will increase, as will also the trade of the State. The rail will secure safety and comfort to the country, and improve the condition and civilisation of the people. In times of famine, tood will be easily carried from place to place.

We are aware that the conditions under which the contract of the coal is to be given cannot now be precisely determined. The royalty to be charged on the coal is a point which the Government will settle with the company. This is a matter of great importance to Rewah. The Government will, of course, act as it thinks best in respect of the terms on which the coal mines will be given on contract, the amount of coal to be extracted and all other matters connected therewith.

We fully trust that the arrangements which the Government will make in the matter will prove of great benefit to the Rewah State, and we concur entirely in the views expressed by the Government. In 1863 when arrangements were made for the Singrowli coal in the time of His Highness Maharaja Rughuraj Singh, the rate of royalty was fixed (by His Highness) at 6 pies per mannd, or 14 annas per ton; and we trust that, when fixing the royalty to be paid for the Umaria, Johilla and Sohagpur coal, the Government will bear in mind the proposals of Johilla and Sehagpur coal, the Government will bear in mind the proposals of Johilla and Sehagpur coal, the Government will bear in mind the proposals of Johilla and Sehagpur coal, the Government will bear in mind the proposals of

From Janardan Singh, Secretary to His Highness the Maharata of Rews, to the Political Agent, Bagheriand, Sutua—No. 861, dated Rews, the 27th April 1899.

I have the honour to acknowledge receipt of your letter No. 689, dated 28th ultimo, regarding conditions on which Umaria Colliery will be transferred to the State.

2. I beg to say in reply that the Darbar agree to the proposal that for the purposes of account the colliery will be transferred to the Darbar from the latine of April 1899, and that the Government of India will continue working for a short time until it is possible for the Darbar to take over the actual possession after the arrangements for the transfer of services of the Manager and the staff are made and other minor points, if any, are settled.

3. The Darbar note that the selling price of colliery on the 31st March 1899 will be treated as a loan from the Government of India at an interest of Rs. 4 (four) per cent. per annum, and the Darbar will be at liberty to pay the capital in fixed instalments.

4. The Darbar quite understand that any proposal to transfer the colliery to a Company must be submitted for the consideration and orders of the Government of India.

through the

Resident at Gwalior,

INTRODUCTION.

I V 1921 the Gwalior Residency was separated from the Central India.

Agency and placed in direct relations with the Government of India.

The Residency includes, besides the Treaty State of Gwalior and the Sanad State of Ehaniadhana, 36 guaranteed land and tanka holders.

For a historical account of the genesis of the mediatised States and Estates of Central India, see Introduction to Volume IV.

There were originally, under the Resident at Gyalior, one mediatised State (Amjhera) and seven mediatised Estates—Agra Barkhera. Barkhaun, Paron, Baghugarh (including Dharnaoda and Garha), Sirsi and Umri (including Khisoda). The Estate of Umri, and them Parwanas promising to pay the amount of the compensation in perpetuity.

In 1921, on the separation of the Gralior Residency from the Central India Agency, it was decided that the Estates named below who, besides their holding from Gralior, either hold lands or receive tankas from the States shown against their names, should in regard to their Gralior holdings deal with the Gralior Residency, and for the others with the holdings deal with the Agencies entered against their names:-

In 1921, in view of the Gwalior Darbar's representations regarding the position of their guaranteed fendatories, the Government of India, relying on the assurance given by Maharaja Madho Rao Scindia of his personal goodwill towards his fendatories, and bearing in mind the great progress which had been made in the administration of the Gwalior State, decided, after consultation with the Maharaja, so to modify the existing system, under which the guarantee holders had assumed a existing system, under which the guarantee holders had assumed a the Maharaja's Government, as to secure the exercise by the Maharaja the Maharaja's Government, as to secure the exercise by the Maharaja

These objects Asirgarh and Hindia, both as security for the lines of communication and out the consent of the British Government; and to give up the forts of to put his troops in fixed positious, whence they were not to move withhis co-operation, he was required to surrender the tribute for three years; treaties and to guarantee to him the tribute of those States. The open defection of the Peshwa and the Raja of Berar shook the fidelity of Scindia to his engagements. The strong fortress of Asirgarh was not surrendered as stipulated by the treaty, and it therefore became necessary to reduce it by force. In the captured fort a letter was found in which Scindia directed the Governor to obey all orders of the Peshwa who, by attacking the Residency at Poona, had declared war on the British Government. In consequence of this want of good faith Scindia was required permanently to cede the fort of Asirgarh.

On the 25th June 1818, a Treaty (No. VIII) was made with Scindia for the adjustment of boundaries, the British Government receiving Ajmer and other districts, and ceding lands of equal value.

Daulat Rao Scindia died in 1827. He left no son, and had repeatedly evaded the advice of the Resident to adopt a successor, leaving it to the British Government to do what they might think proper. In accordance, however, with what were believed to be the last wishes of Daulat Rao, a youth of eleven years, named Mugat Rao, of an obscure branch of the family, but declared to be the nearest relation of Daulat Rao, was adopted; was married to the grand-daughter of Daulat Rao, by Baira Bai; and was placed in power, with the title of Ali Jah Jankuji Baisa Bai; and was placed in power, with the title of Ali Jah Jankuji Hao Scindia, under the regency of Baira Bai. She even pressed on the British Government the conclusion of a new treaty, in order that she might obtain the formal recognition of her right to exercise the power, of regent during her life. Although Government declined to conclude a new treaty, and although in 1830 they insisted on she still clung the young Maharaja's seal in all official communications, she still clung to the hope of keeping the government in her own hands, and took no steps to train the young Chief for the future exercise of pecame at last intolerable to him, and he fled from the palace and became at last intolerable to him, and he fled from the palace and took refuge with the Resident. By the Treaty of 1817 Daulat Rao Scindia had engaged to furnish a contingent* of 5,000 horse and had assigned for its support the annual payments made to him by the British Government and the tribute from the States of Jodhpur, Bundi and Kotah. After the close of the war the contingent was reduced to 2,000 horse at a monthly cost of Rs. 1,20,000, but this amount was in excess of the funds allotted to meet it. It was therefore agreed (No. IX) in February 1820 that the force should be reduced so as to bring its cost within the sum originally assigned, and that, for the debt due from Scindia on account of it, certain districts should be temporarily transferred to the British Government. Questions of succession to this jagir are usually decided by the British Government and the decision communicated to Scindia.

The Agreement of 1823 was in a manner forced on the Darbar, who long continued to arge their right to the restoration of the districts (other than Deori) placed by them under British management. In 1837 it was decided that the arrangement was not revocable at the will of the Gwalior appointing the expectations of their people and causing danger to the general tranquillity and to the freedom of commercial interceurse with Bombay. The districts were eventually ceded in full sovereignty to the British Government under the Treaty of 1860 (No. XII).

The rule of Jankuji Scindia was very weak. Although Baiza Bai* had no strong party within Gwalior territories, she did not cease to intrigue and to use for this purpose a sum of Rs. 37,00,000, deposited in the Benares treasury, which, by the arbitration of the British Government, acquiesced in by Scindia, had been declared to be her private property. The Manna Sahib, the Maharaja's maternal uncle, occupied the post of minister during the greater part of his rule; but the court was a constant scene of feuds and struggles for power among the nobles, while the army was in a chronic state of mutiny. The weakness of the internal government prepared the way for the hostilities with the British internal government prepared the way for the Maharaja's death, and Government which broke out shortly after the Maharaja's death, and resulted in an entire change of British policy towards the Gwalior State.

All pensionary and charitable allowances and religious endowments assigned on the lands transferred to Scindia under the Treaty of 1860 in exchange, whether originally ceded districts or British territory, are provided for the British Government; because, though the Treaty of 1860 question, which were very common with the Mahrattas, were deducted in the valuation statement of the Gwalior Darbar. In the case of the pargans of Meemuch, which was given as a reward to Scindia for services during the mutiny, the Maharaja was informed that the continuance of pensions and allowances was discretionary. The aggregate annual charge of pensions and allowances was discretionary. Subsequently to the conclusion of the Treaty of 1860 it was ascertained that the Char Thana estate, which formed one of the items of the assignments under the Treaty of 1844, had never been taken over by the British Government and had been allowed virtually to cease to form one of the ceded items, as its revenues never appeared in the annual accounts, which were made up without reference to them. A note to this effect was entered opposite this item in schedule A appended to article 7 of the Treaty, and the necessary corrections were made in the number of villages, and in the amount of their gross value in schedule C. In 1866 Scindia preferred a claim that the titles of holders of rentfree estates, in those portions of the assigned district of Bhander which of 1860, should be confirmed in perpetuity by the issue of Sanads from the British Government under the terms of article 3. The Maharaja was informed that the terms of clause 4 of article 3 were not intended to apply to any portion of the assigned districts restored to him under the territorial exchanges provided for therein, and that he was free to deal with them as he pleased; but that he must faithfully carry out the terms of that clause in respect of the landowners enjoying special rights in the British lands transferred to him, as would be done in respect of the same class of persons in the Gwalior lands transferred in exchange to the British Government; also that the conditions in question were not British Government in full sovereignty under article 7, as the transfer had not been subject to any such conditions.

In 1866 certain rules were sanctioned by the Government of India for enforcing the responsibility of Indian States for mail robberies committed within their territories. Scindia saked for special exemption from the operation of these rules, on the ground of the comparative excellence of his police arrangements; but the request was disallowed, and he was informed that it rested with him, by still further improving and he was informed that it rested with him, by still further improving his police, to avoid the chance of being affected by the penalties laid down in the rules.

In 1867 the Ruler of Gralior was granted a permanent salute of 19 guns, and a permanent local salute of 21 guns within his own territories.

After the exchanges effected by the Treaty of 1860 had been finally adjusted, there still remained a balance of Rs. 4,994-0-10 in Scindia's favour: and, as there was no land then available, this balance was paid to him annually in eash. Scindia objected to this arrangement, and it was eventually decided to give him an equivalent in land out of the pargana of Bhander, in the Jalaun district, which had been ceded to the British Government under the Treaty of 1860. It was also decided to cede to the Maharaja territory of the annual value of Rs. 10,000 as an equivalent for lands taken up for the extension of the Morar cantonment, the Maharaja being left to settle the details of compensation with the proprietors and others interested in the alienation of the land.

In the meantime the British Government had undertaken negotiations for the transfer to the Mixam of ten ancestral villages possessed by Scindia within the Hyderabad territories. These villages had enjoyed an exemption from the jurisdiction of the Mixam's Government which, in the interests of the general peace of the country, could not be allowed to continue. Scindia consented to cede these villages to the British Government on condition of receiving from them an equivalent in lands bordering on his territory north of the Marbada; while the British Government were to transfer the ten villages by a separate exchange to the Mixam, receiving in lieu of them an equivalent in Ryderabad villages on the Bombay frontier (see Vol. IX, Hyderabad). The villages were valued by a British officer, by whose decision Scindia and the Mixam agreed beforehand to be bound, at Rs. 15,000 a year.

It was settled that all these exchanges should form one transaction and be included in a supplementary treaty. An annual payment to Scindia of Rs. 452-9-4, representing village-rights and holdings in the Poona Collectorate, was afterwards included in the list of claims. From this must be deducted an annual payment by Scindia of Rs. 325-13-9 on account of other holdings in the Deccan, and the equivalent of the lagir of Ansi in the Poons Collectorate, viz., Rs. 2,602-13-0 per annum, which at Scindia's request was conferred by the British Government on his Minister, Dada Ganpat Rao Khadke. The result of the settlement showed that territory to the annual value of about Rs. 27,500 had to be made over to Scindia and his heirs in perpetuity: and a Treaty (No. XVI) embodying these arrangements was concluded on the 23,658-1-9, representing one year's payments on account of the balance due under the Treaty of 1860 for the land ceded for the Alorar cantonment and for Scindia's Hyderabad villages, up to the date blorar cantonment and for Scindia's Hyderabad villages, up to the date of the actual transfer of the villages ceded in exchange to him.

In November 1872 and January 1873 the Government of India accepted offers from Scindia of two loans, each of 75 lakhs, for the construction of lines of railway between Gwalior and Agra, and between Neemuch and Indore. The arrangements made, which included the cession by Scindia of all lands required for the railways and of plenary civil and criminal jurisdiction on the lines, as well as an undertaking that he would levy no transit duties on through traffic, were embodied in an Engagement (No. XVII) and formally accepted in a Kharita from in an Engagement (No. XVII) and formally accepted in a Kharita from

In August 1877, owing to the unusually small rainfall and the consequent distress in Scindia's northern districts, which entailed heavy expenditure in relief operations, the Maharaja obtained from the British Government a loan of fifty lakhs. It was arranged (No. XVIII) that the amount should be repaid in eleven years, from the interest annually payable to Scindia on his railway loan. The balance, Rs. 13,77,847-15-9, was paid off in 1887.

In 1879 the Government of India concluded an Agreement (No. XIX) with Scindia under which he made certain concessions regarding the production, export and import of salt in Gwalior State. The Agreement also included an article prohibiting the export from the State of any intoxicating preparations, such as bhang, ganja, opium, etc. In consideration of these concessions, the Government of India, while reserving their right to revise the Agreement if necessary, agreed to pay to Scindia their right to revise the Agreement if necessary, agreed to pay to Scindia Rs. 3,12,500 annually, in half-yearly instalments.

The actual evacuation of Gwalior and Morar by British troops took place on the 10th March 1886, and on the same date the form and fort of Jhansi were made over by the Gwalior anthorities.

Jayaji Rao Scindia died in 1886. In 1865, after the death of the last survivor of three infant sons, he had obtained the sanction of Government to the adoption of Ranaji Scindia as his heir; but in 1870, in consequence of Ranaji Scindia's admitted complicity in a plot against the Maharaja's life, the Maharaja had requested, and Government had sanctioned, the cancellation of the adoption. Jayaji Rao's son Madho Rao, who succeeded him, was born in 1876.

In accordance with the wishes of the late Chief, and with the concurrence of the Government of India, the administration of the Gwalior State during the minority was entrusted to a Council of Regency, appointed in September 1886. Rao Raja Ganpat Rao Khadke, who had been for more than 20 years Diwan and Karbhari to Maharaja Jayaji Rao, was appointed President of the Council, and seven members were selected from the principal Sardars and officials of the State. This administrative body was empowered to carry on the government of the Supervise their proceedings and to suggest measures for the improvement of the administration. Reforms were initiated in almost every branch of the government; and special efforts, which met with a considerable measure of success, were made to supress crime, and more particularly organised dalasiti, throughout the State.

The accession of Maharaja Madho Rao Scindia was signalized by the abolition of all transit duties throughout Gwalior State. This important measure was announced by a notification dated the 25th September 1886.

In 1887 the Council of Regency offered the Government of India a loan of three and a half crores of rupees at 4 per cent. interest. This investment of a portion of the accumulated State treasure, which amounted to upwards of six crores, was approved, the terms were embodied in an Agreement (No. XXII), and it was arranged that the repayment of the loan should be made by annual instalments of 12 lakha, ment of the loan should be made by annual instalments of 12 lakha, was finally repaid in full in 1924.

Rao Raja Ganpat Rao died in 1888: and, with the concurrence of the Government of India, the junior Maharani was nominated to act as Regent, though without administrative powers or right of interference with the conduct of public affairs. Bapu Sahib Jadau, a member of the Vouncil of Regency and the Maharaja's maternal grandfather, was installed as President of the Council.

In 1888 detailed arrangements were made for the transfer of the territory in the neighbourhood of Jhansi, ceded by Jayaji Rao Scindia in 1886. The conditions relating thereto were set forth in a Kharita (No. XXIII) dated the 13th June from the Viceroy to Maded the 7th Scindia, and accepted by him in a Kharita (No. XXIV) dated the 7th September.

In December 1888 an Agreement (No. XXV) was concluded with the Council of Regency, whereby the Darbar ceded full civil and criminal jurisdiction over the lands in Gralior territory occupied by the extension of the Indian Midland Railway from Gralior to Jhansi and from Jhansi in the direction of Bhopal. These lands had been given, free of charge, by Jayaji Rao Scindia in 1882. In the same month the Postal Convention of 1885 was modified by the conclusion of an additional Convention (No. XXVI).

In 1887 the Council of Regency made a formal request that all the roads in Granior territory, then under the charge of the Public Works Department of the Central India Agency, should be made over to the administration of the Granior State. The transfer was agreed to, on condition that those roads which were important from an Imperial point of view should be kept in a state satisfactory to the Government of India, who would make arrangements for examining them from time to time: and that, if at any time the State should resume charge, the whole cost of such resumption and of future maintenance being chargeable to the Charlior State. The transfer was accordingly carried out with effect from the 1st June 1888, and the yearly contribution of Rs. 50,000 effect from the 1st June 1888, and the yearly contribution of Rs. 50,000 formerly paid by Gralior ceased from that date.

з. КНАМІАРНАМА.

Although owing allegiance to the British Government from the time of the Peshwa's cession of his sovereign power in Bundelkhand in 1817, the Chief of this State never executed any written engagement till 1862, when it was considered expedient to embody the terms of his allegiance in a Sanad (No. XLV) before granting him the privilege of adoption, which was conceded in the same year (No. XLVI).

The Jagir of Khaniadhana originally formed part of the Orchha State, having been granted about 1703 by Udot Singh to his younger brother Aman Singh. After the dismemberment of the Orchha State by the Mahrattas, the Peshwa granted a sanad for the jagir to Amir Singh Aharwali in 1751. Thereafter the sovereignty over Khaniadhana was for many years the subject of dispute between the Mahratta State of Jiansi and Orchha; and after the lapse of Jiansi the British Government inherited the dispute. The Jagirdar indeed claimed absolute independence, both of the British Government and of Orchha; but in 1862 it was decided that, like the Hasht-Bhaya Jagirs (see Part II, Bundelkhand), Khaniadhana was directly dependent on the British Government, on the British that it had undoubtedly formed a part of the Mahratta conquest in Bundelkhand, and had been granted to Amir Singh by the Peshwa, to whose rights the British Government had succeeded: and that, for half a century at least, Orchha had exercised no sovereign rights or jurisdiction whatever in Khaniadhana.

(iuman Singh, who succeeded his father in 1863, executed a Deed of Allegiance (No. XLVIII). He died in 1869, and was succeeded by his son Chitra Singh, who in 1888 erded (No. XLVIII) full jurisdiction, short of sovereign rights, over lands required for the thansi-Bhopal section of the Indian Midhand Railway. As the circumstances of the jagir were considered exceptional, compensation of Rs. 8,353-10-9 was paid in 1890 for the Indian Midhand Railway. As the circumstances of the jagir were considered exceptional, compensation of Rs. 8,353-10-9 was paid in 1890 for the lands so acquired. It was at the same time intimated that this payment must be treated as a special case, and not as forming a precedent. Chitra Singh died in November 1909 and was succeeded by his son Malaq Singh born in 1892, who received the personal title of Raja in 1911. He was invested with administrative powers in 1914; but, owing to indebtedness, the State was placed under superintendence in 1923. In 1927, however, his powers were restored to him.

The area of Khaniadhana is 68 square miles; the population, according to the Census of 1921, 17,582; and the revenue about Rs. 34,000.

There is a military force of 7 Cavalry, 100 Infantry and 2 Artillery

H. D. Dalx, Major-Genl., Agent, Goor,-Genl., for Central India.

Morar, The 12th January 1873,

KHARITA from His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General of India, to His Highness the Maharan Scindia of Gwalior,—1873.

I have already through my Agent in Central India expressed my sense of Your Highness's liberal and enlightened offer to place at the disposal of the Government of India a sum, payable in five years, aggregating 150 lakhs of Rupees, for the construction of two lines of railway, one from Gwalior to Agra and the other from Indore to Neemuch.

I have now the pleasure to communicate formally to Your Highness the acceptance by the British Government of the loan on the conditions stated in the agreements made with General Daly on 19th November 1872 and 11th January 1873.

I understand also from General Daly that Your Highness will provide, free of charge, all the land required for the railways, the stations, buildings, &c., and that no transit duties will be levied on through-traffic; also that no royalty or dues of any kind will be charged by Your Highness on materials required for the railways either procured from or in transit through Your Highness's territories; that the whole of the arrangements as to construction, equipment and maintenance of the lines, and the management of the lines after they are open, as well as plenary civil and criminal jurisdiction within the lands occupied for Railway purposes from the date of the land being made over, are to rest exclusively with the British Government; and that the British Government alone has interest in and the receipt and control of the receipts of the lines.

The proofs which Your Highness has given of an earnest desire to extend the advantages of railway communication to your country have afforded me much gratification. The expressions of your heartfelt attachment to the British Government which General Daly has reported to me are fully reciprocated.

I beg to express the high consideration I entertain for Your Highness, and to subscribe myself Your Highness's sincere triend.

PRONOUNCEMENT by HIS EXCELLENCY LORD CHELMSTORD, VICEROY and TANKADARS of the GWALIOR STATE on the 14th March 1921, Jagirdars and Tankadars of the Gwalior State.

It must be within the knowledge of most of you how your ancestors came to have direct access to the Political Officers and thus to enjoy the protection of the British Government.

2. In the beginning of the 19th Century the peace of Hindustan was very much disturbed by the prevalence of the predatory system. The British Government desired to restore order and succeeded in doing so by 1818 A.D. To this result the eo-operation of their Ally, Maharaja Daulat Rao Scindia, greatly contributed

3. The overthrow of those who were given to maranding and levying blackmail, left the chieftains and nobility of Malwa without means of subsistence and in consequence extremely sore and disaffected. The British Government, therefore, addressed themselves to the task of pacifying the country and appointed Sir John Alaleolm to effect this end. Sir John accomplished his mission with the help of Certain assistants and the ready co-operation of the Darbars of Central India.

4. Settlements were thus effected which, by the fact of the mediation of Sir John Maleolm and his assistants, involved the guarantee on the part of the British Government that whatever was settled would be scrupulously observed. These according as the terms of the grants provided, of their holdings and tankas subject to good conduct and in many cases the duties of watch and ward in respect of portions of the Darbar territory in proximity to their grants. But the British Government did not intend that the mediation of Sir John Malcolm should form the basis for encroachment upon, or interference with, the suzerain rights of the Darbars. In the course of time, however, owing to the conditions prevailing in most States, the settlements effected created and British officers were led to interwhom certain emoluments had been secured and British officers were led to interwhom certain emoluments lad been secured and British officers were led to intervene in matters with which Sir John Malcolm's mediation had no concern.

5. The conditions referred to have ceased to exist, and in Gwalior the Darbar's administration is characterized by fairness and justice, and Lieutenant-General His Highness the Maharaja Scindia takes an active personal interest in all branches of administration. And indeed for safeguarding the interests of this large body of his Jagirdars he created, many years ago, a separate Department and framed a Manual which is complete in all respects.

6. But quite apart from that, the need for a revision of the practice which has subsequently grown up has been apparent for a considerable time. The Government of India have given their hest consideration to the problem and have arrived at the following conclusions:

- (1) that, while the pledges originally given by the British Government must remain inviolable, the specially privileged position which the guarantee-holders have acquired, and which was not contemplated at the time of the original settlement, should not continue; and therefore,
- (2) that the Gwalior Darbar should no longer be prevented from exercising
- 7. Consequently it has been arranged, in consultation with the Maharaja Scindla, that.
- (1) the Owalior Darbar will issue to you fresh Samuds in perpetuity in a form to that a perpetuity in a
- (2) these Sanady will in all cases confirm the specific rights secured to you by the existing title deeds and the specific obligations had on you by your existing title deeds will be enforced by His Highness to a very limited extent;
- (3) under His Highness's Zararam Rules, as recently medified, the succession dues, which were formerly levied on adoption at the rate of a whole year's revenue, are now to be levied at the reduced rate of 3 months' revenue only.
- 8. In view of this settlement, Political Officers will no longer concern themsolves with your affairs, and you will in future look to your Suzerain, His Highness the Maharaja Scindia for the time being, and his Darbar in all matters connected with your estates and rankas. You will, therefore, henceforth be entitled to the rights and subject to the obligations contained in the Manual of Jagirdars of the clwalior State, Sambat 1970, as in force for the time being.

sandarana and Pankadars.

Such are in brief the terms of the settlement which has been arrived at between my Government and the Gwalior Darbar on your behalf. These terms have been fully explained to you by my Agent, Colonel Beville, and I am glad to hear that you have accepted them as a fair and just settlement of your claims under the agreements gnaranteed by the officers of the British Government a century ago. I feel that you have every reason to congratulate yourselves on this settlement, which is the result of the negotiations of my officers with His Highness the Maharaja which is the result of the negotiations of my officers with His Highness the Maharaja which is the result of the negotiations of my officers with His Highness the Maharaja and cartend to you a friendly hand in all your difficulties. I look to you on your part to bear true allegiance towards your Suzerain, and to perform faithfully the duties which you owe to him. By so doing you will ensure your own happiness and contentment, and add to the strength and prosperity of the British Empire, of which the Gwalior Darbar and yourselves are a part.

to supply to Government, less any sum already paid to the Darbar for the purpose of making advances to cultivators. Such payments will subsequently be deducted from the sum payable to the Darbar on account of the price of opium.

13. This agreement will have effect for five years from the season 1925-26 to the season 1929-30 inclusive. It may be previously determined either by the Darbar or by Government by notice given not later than the lat of March in any year, such notice having the effect of determining the agreement as soon as the produce of the crop then in the ground has been delivered and paid for.

14. The examination and assay of each consignment of opium will ordinarily commence within about three days of its arrival at the factory and will ordinarily take between 5 and 10 days, but these periods may be exceeded when numerous consignments are being simultaneously received from different places. An official deputed by Darbar will, if the Darbar so desire, be permitted to be present at the examination of the opium supplied by the Darbar. He will also be instructed in the process of assay, and will be permitted to visit the laboratory from time to time in the company of the Eactory Superintendent, while the produce of the State is under assay. (The conditions under which laboratory work is necessarily conducted preclude his being given unrestricted access to the laboratory.)

The Darbar official, if any, deputed for this purpose, should arrange to reach the factory at the same time as the first consignment, and to remain until the examination of the last consignment is complete. In no case can the examination of opium he postponed owing to his absence, Dated Suma Assarin Mayhten wa Alaf (1220 A.A.).

Rattan Singh, son of Himmat Singh of Kalukhera, waited upon the Sarkar at Indore and represented that in Samat year 1874 when Vithal Mahadeo and Low (or *Kaye) Saheb camped with troops at Indulth in the said pargana and established Thanas at Marelia and other †places after causing them to be evacuated, he, through fear when visiting the two Sardars (i.e., Low and Vithal Mahadeo), agreed to take only the sum of Rs. 2 as bhet from each village of the pargana and not to levy a single piec over and above this and gave an agreement in writing to Lakshman Sadashiv Kamavisdar of the Mahal to that effect. He now requests that the Sarkar, after inquiry and taking into consideration the amount of his tanka (formerly) levied in the villages of the said pargana from time immemorial and prior to the period of the disturbances, would arrange for payment of his tanks to him.

Taking the above request into consideration it has been found from inquiries made regarding the Tanka of Kalukhera in the pargana from the Zamindara of the Mahal that he was allowed formerly to take Ra. 2 as bhet. He is therefore more than this is to be taken nor are the people of the villages to be oppressed: such being the arrangement of which his acceptance has been received, sanction is given to pay him from the Mahal Kacheri a sum of Ra. 225 in the local currency. So this letter is written to you directing you to pay the said sum of two hundred SANAD granted by Raishri Suradar Shri Daulat Rao Sinde Alijah Bahadur Sanad granted by Raiman Singh of Bhadora,—1822.

You and your family have long possessed these villages:-

In Taluka Tarata. Mahu. Balapur. Semra. In Taluka Myana. Ohamnar. Sagariya. Tinsai. Pagasra.

You were already in possession of these seven villages when the (dwallor) Sarkar established its overlordship. At this time the two villages of Shamra, and Balapur were left with you; the others, viz., the five villages of Dhamnar, Dagasra, Mahu, Tinasi and Sagariya were assigned to you by a Sanad by the Sarkar in San Ihide Ashrin (1221), Samat 1877. In return half the revenue (of them) was to go to you and half to the Sarkar—such was the arrangement, but these villages never actually passed into your possession: it is (therefore) proposed that the Sarkar should (formally) resume them, viz.:—

The other villages lately assigned to you by the Sarkar (were) too so held by you from early days, in the Tarawat Taluka, viz. :--

The five new villages were granted to you in the year San Ihide Ashrin (1221) or Samvat 1879*. In return for these the Sarkar resumed three villages, leaving the rest in your possession, viz.:—

Oated Suma Itale Ashin Mayaten wa alla Ilas A.A.).

Dhirat Singh, Girassia of Dhulatia, has been in receipt of Tanka from each village in the Pargana since time immemorial. He should take it in accordance with past usage, but instead of that he began to recover more or less of the amount, of this Tanka from the time of the disturbances. Now that it has been settled by the Sarkar that the Girassia should not recover a single pice direct but should take (the tanka) from the Mahal Kacheri and render service. The above decision is given by the Sarkar and the amount of Tanka is fixed as below from Samuat year 1876, at Rs. 201.

Two hundred and one has been fixed as Tanka and this letter is written to you. You should therefore pay from Samual year 1876 the aforesaid two hundred and one rupees to the Girassia of Dhulatia from the Mahal Kacheri and take service in the Mahal from him. Be this known to you. Ch. 29 Moharram (6th November 1820).

Endorsement.—This Sumnd has been given by His Highness Malhar Rao Holkar to Dheerat Singh, Grassia Chief, late Thakur of Dhoolaitia, for the payment of two hundred and one rupees annually at the Kachery of Dipaulpoor, being the amount of Gras Tanka to which Dheerut Singh is entitled to from that District.

TRANSLATION of a letter from Major F. H. Sandys, Political Agent, to Guman Sing, Thakoor of Dhulatia,—1843.

You are hereby informed that you submitted a petition to me to the effect that your uncle Pirthaji having died you would arrange for the maintenance and deceased Parthaji was included in your tanks, that as he had no heir the amount of Tanka might be paid to you. Gehana Bai lodged a complaint mentioning that she appointed her nephew Samtaji as successor to the Tanka. With a view to ascertain the facts of the complaints lodged by the plaintiff and defendant in accordance with custom the Vakil of Nana Saheb was directed to make enquiries into the matter and send a report with the file. Nana Saheb was addressed by the Vakil who after making necessary enquiries returned the file of the case with his letter and a Kayasnama (opinion). A perusal of the Kayasnama showed that the complaint of the defendant Gehana Bai was not correct and that your statement proved to be just and proper. It is, therefore, with reference to the Kayasnama decided that you shall receive every year the sum of Rs. 470 (four hundred and seventy) on account of Tanka which was enjoyed by the deceased Pirthaji. Gehana Bai has since died and her claim to the tanka, to which she had appointed her nephew as successor, was not proved, but as she adopted Samtaji you should make such a provision for his maintenance and clothing as you may deem necesmary.
